Planners Approve Drive-in at Bruno Despite Objections

Possible Council Appeal

By DON GRIERSON

San Bruno Planning Commissioners approved a use permit for a drive-in restaurant in the city's commercial district Monday night over the objections of 300 petitioners.

After hearing arguments for both backers an opponents, commissioners granted the permit for establishment of an A & W Root Beer drive-in at the corner of Jenevein and El Camino Real on a site owned by Grady Frazier of Millbrae.

John Murphy, owner of a ten-unit apartment building adjacent to the site, said he intends to appeal the planning commission decision to the city council immediately. Commissioners voted 4-1 to approve the use permit request after inspecting the A & W operation at eight other sites in the county.

Commissioner Joseph Greenberg voted against the permit.

Attorneys for Frazier and owners of the restaurant chain presented statements from police, school authorities and church officials attesting to the "good name and respectability" of the A & W operation at Menlo Park, Redwood City, San Mateo and Mountain View.

The four commissioners voting in favor of the permit stated complaints of disturbances arising at one of the company's operations in San Mateo "are not sufficient grounds for denying the use permit here."

Frazier, who has owned the corner lot since 1965, earlier stated he is paying "in excess of $1,500 a year" taxes on the property and has derived no income from his investment.

Commission members expressed regret that "some more suitable use has not been made of the site, one of the last undeveloped locations in the city on El Camino Real.

Frazier and Harry Rongey, part-owner of an adjacent section of the block, have been un-

7 Candidates In N. County's Trustee Contests

Seven candidates have entered the North County school board races with less than ten days left to the filing deadline.

The entrants will be vying for ten vacancies in the five northern districts affected by the race.

In the Laguna Salada School District (Pacifica) Robert F. Sale filed last January 24.

James M. Cooper, an incumbent, filed February 14 in the Jefferson High School Board race.

Two newcomers — John J. Burke and Louis M. Levin — filed for the South San Francisco Unified School District Board race along with incumbent Hale F. Porter.

In San Bruno, both incumbents Harry F. Redlick and Eugene M. Rollins have filed for the upcoming April battle.

There are two seats open in all districts.

Fire Guts A Bedroom In South S.F.

A bedroom fire so hot it melted a kitchen telephone and plastic light switches caused an estimated $5,000 worth of damage in South San Francisco yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Caudle and their two children were not home at their 1031 Miller Avenue address when smoke was seen billowing from the house shortly after 10:15 a.m.

Caudle is a student, his wife works and the two youngsters were at school when Manuel Troche of 1056 Miller, pulled the alarm box to summon firemen.

They all had left the home by 8:15, according to a fire department spokesman, who said the fire had been blazing for some time.

The blaze had been burning for so long and was so hot that sheetrock fell to the floor and disintegrated as soon as a fog-stream hit it.

"This indicates it was pretty darn hot," the departmental spokesman said, "and had been burning for quite awhile because normally that does not happen."

The cause of the back bedroom blaze has not yet been determined. The exact time has not be pinpointed, either.

Gun Slips Off Bench, Youth Hurt

Daly City police today labeled the accidental shooting of a 15-year-old youth, returned home only yesterday from a spree to Disneyland, as "an unfortunate coincidence."

Last week, parents of Edwin Charles Spiteri, of 298 Verano Avenue, reported to police their son had disappeared along with some $550 in household money.

A missing persons alert was flashed throughout the state and Edwin was spotted with a male companion inside Disneyland by Anaheim police.

The boy was returned home Monday, police said.

Shortly after his return, Edwin was toying with a .22-caliber rifle in the basement of his home.

Slipping a cartridge into the chamber, the boy laid the rifle on a nearby workbench and started to walk away.

The gun slipped from the bench, hit the floor and discharged, sending a slug ripping into his upper right chest.

Youth Hurt Severely In Slide Crash

William A. Beene, 22, of San Francisco, sustained severe injuries at 4 a.m. Tuesday when his auto crashed into an embankment in the Devil's Slide area of Cabrillo Highway a mile south of Linda Mar.

Highway patrolmen said Beene apparently fell asleep while driving northbound. His car drifted to the left and hit the bank. If it had gone the other way, officers noted, it would have plunged down a steep ravine.

Officers said the victim's right ear was nearly severed. He also sustained a possible broken right leg and other injuries and suffered an extreme loss of blood. Beene was taken to Mary's Help Hospital for emergency treatment and was transferred to San Francisco General Hospital.

Wilson School Bid Awarded

The Jefferson Elementary School Board of Trustees Monday awarded a construction contract for the Woodrow Wilson School in Daly City to Edward R. Griffin of Los Altos.

Griffin's bid of $509,000 was lowest of nine bids submitted to the board.

In a previous opening last year, all bids were considerably above the engineer's estimate on the project and rejected by the board.

Children attending the partially demolished Woodrow Wilson School building on Miriam Street will be bussed to the Fernando Rivera School on Lake Merced Boulevard for the remainder of the year, district officials said.

HEAVENS NO! That's an elm! Mrs. Robert Eby of Daly City was having some difficulty today explaining that cherry tree story to her 5-year-old son Bobby. The nearest thing to a cherry tree in the neighborhood turned out to be this London Plane elm in front of the new city hall, and that box of cherry creams was a pretty obvious substitute. Besides, there is little likelihood Public Works Director Art Reschke would have been as understanding as George Washington's father had Bobby cut down that expensive piece of landscaping foliage. Industrial Park Bond Sale Okeh'd

South San Francisco Councilmen approved the sale of $700,000 in improvement bonds on Cabot, Cabot and Forbes Industrial Park Unit 2-A Monday night.

The 25-year bonds went to J. Barth and Comapny, low bidder at 4.55 per cent interest.

This was the first sale of bonds on the industrial park unit, and at least one city official, Attorney John Noonan, was unhappy with the bids.

"We were assured several months ago when the council approved splitting of the district that this would improve the bond rate," Noonan said.

"Considering the condition of the bond market at this time, I don't feel that this is an exceptionally good bid," he said.

It was pointed out, however, that the bond market picture has changed considerably since councilmen approved the district split two months ago.

In other business Monday night, the council accepted the bid of Arata Pontiac Co. for a new station wagon to be used by the police department. Bid for a motorcycle went to the Dudley Perkins Co. of San Francisco, and Hu-Cat Electric Co. was awarded the purchase order for a three-wheel utility truck.

All three of the firms were low bidders on the equipment.

Updating of the SP Line – Painless Way

By VIRGIL WILSON

A relatively painless way of extending the Southern Pacific line in San Francisco for the benefit of Peninsula commuters was suggested Monday to the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority.

The cost, estimated at $25,000,000, might be met, West Bay General Manager John C. Lilly told his directors, by applying the extra fares many commuters now pay to get to downtown San Francisco locations.

Lilly said that preliminary figures prepared by his assistant, Project Engineer Ronald Fisher, are "encouraging and apparently in the ballpark of economic feasibility."

Modernization of the Southern Pacific service and extension of the San Francisco terminal from its present location at Third and Townsend to a new location in the vicinity of Second and Market is one of four rapid transit plans for San Mateo County being considered by the West Bay Authority. Most of the Authority's recent discussions have dealt with another of the alternates — extension of the Bay Area Rapid Transit system into or through the county. Lilly said he wanted to assure the directors and the public that his staff and the Authority's consultants are giving attention to the other possibilities, including "making do" with the existing SP commute system.

Lilly said the 15 cents a day many commuters now pay to take a muni bus from the SP station to Market Street locations might be sufficient to finance extension of the rail line.

Tanforan Optimism

A new atmosphere of optimism over possibilities for development of a Tanforan shopping center prevailed at Monday night's meeting of the San Bruno Planning Commission as a new group of managers presented their plans.

Frank Lyon, a representative of Sunset International Petroleum Corp., said his firm has received "regional approval" from the J. C. Penney Co. for construction of a 250,000-square-foot department store building.

Lyons presented plans for an air conditioned, enclosed shopping mall on the 45-acre site, and a shoping center parking area to accommodate 3,000 cars.

The plans were prepared by Victor Gruen Associates, architects for the Sunset firm.

"We have new architects, new

Flooding At S.S.F. Is Discussed

What would it be like to live in a house with a sandbag fence around and a "tidegate" across the entrance to the garden path? How about a permanent moat encircling the house and a drawbridge to the front door?

These were among the more or less serious suggestions offered as solutions to the flooding problems of a group of Francisco Terrace residents Monday night by South San Francisco Public Works Director Louis Goss and members of the city council.

Goss also suggested placing pumps in the yards of three of the residences.

As might be expected, all these proposals were ultimately rejected as either too expensive or downright absurd, and the homeowners were told they must suffer until the Army Corps of Engineers completes long-range work on flood control in the area.

"We are simply unable to find a workable solution to the problem at this time," Goss said. "Colma Creek is not large enough to carry the load if pumps were installed to move the water out, and there is no other route for discharging it."

The homeowners, in a petition to the council, said "we would like to be informed of what is going to be done regarding possible flooding of our district."

"The area has been flooded

JESD Motion 'Killed'

Citizen Urges Special Meet

By FRANK LAPIERRE

The Jefferson Elementary School Board failed again Monday night to discuss the California Teachers' Association (CTA) ethics probe concluded in that area recently.

Instead, chairman George Perry killed a motion made by trustee Peter Galiano, asking the board to issue a statement on the matter.

Only three board trustees appeared at the regular Monday night meeting.

The two absentees—Joseph Lewkowitz and O. Wayne Douglas—were granted what chairman Perry termed "excused absences."

According to the board's minutes, Douglas has not attended a board session for the past six weeks.

Larry Freiberg, of 30 Village Lane, Daly City, warned the board "the longer we wait, the more everyone will suffer" unless a stand is taken on the ethics report.

"I ask the board to hold a special meeting in the near future to study this matter and settle it," Freiberg said.

Galiano made another motion to hold a special session of the board next Tuesday, however the motion again failed for lack of a second.

"Do you intend to ignore this (ethics) report forever?" Galiano asked chairman Perry.

In a letter to the board, trustee Douglas explained his absence was primarily due to business conflicts between business and school board meeting hours.

Douglas said he had been a

Man, 60, Is Hit by Car, Badly Hurt

A 60-year-old man is in serious condition at Peninsula Hospital today with injuries received Sunday afternoon when he was struck down by a car on San Mateo Avenue in San Bruno.

Leslie William Horne, 111 Euclid Avenue, San Bruno, received a spine fracture and multiple lacerations about 7:20 p.m. Sunday when he was struck by a car near the intersection of Kain Avenue and San Mateo Avenue.

Police said the driver of the car, Edward R. Vega, of San Francisco, was looking for a house address and did not see Horne crossing the street about 50-feet south of the intersection.

Vega was traveling north at about 25 miles per hour when Horne walked into the path of the car.

able to agree on terms for combining their interest. The Bank of California and Gulf Oil Company have expressed interest in locating on the site at various times, but lack of agreement on the part of the owners has prevented agreement.

Greenberg introduced a motion to deny the permit Monday, stating that the establishment would be "a hardship on the city of San Bruno, and a continuous trouble spot."

San Mateo police have several complaints from the neighborhood around a drive-in operation in that city.

A number of conditions were attached to the permit granted Monday night, including a stipulation that two private patrolmen be stationed at the restaurant from 8:30 until closing time each night.

The operators must also agree to close at 11 p.m. weekdays and at midnight on weekends, provide fences and landscaping, meet the city's parking requirements and restrict juke box speakers to the inside of the building.

The commission retained the right to "review conditions" of the establishment at the end of one year under the use permit.

Murphy, who resides at 460 Linden Avenue, and another neighborhood resident, George Avery, spoke in opposition to the use permit, stating the establishment will depreciate the value of their property and constitute a nuisance.

Murphy presented the petition, which was signed by voters from throughout the city.

Planning commissioners voting in favor of the permit pointed out that the restaurant will provide approximately $3,000 per year in taxes.

Theft Case: No Charges Filed Yet

A former Daly City couple who reportedly went on a cash-on-the-line spending spree that provided a new ranch style home, two new cars and a motorcycle, in addition to money to loan to friends, have admitted to burglarizing North San Mateo County homes to the tune of over $75,000, South San Francisco police Det. Jack Rhodes said this week.

Police are questioning Raymond Biagi, 44, an inmate of Atascadero State Hospital, and his 42-year-old wife, Eva.

Charges have not yet been filed, Rhodes said.

Rhodes and Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage cleared up the rash of home burglaries that were committed over a period of 12 months.

Rhodes said that over 50 per cent of the stolen items have been recovered. They were confiscated by authorities in a ranch-style home at 2401 Henley, Bakersfield.

The break came, Rhodes said, when Kern County authorities in Bakersfield became suspicious over recent indications of wealth of the suspects.

Rhodes said the couple apparently had acquired recently the Bakersfield home, in addition to two 1966 model cars, a motorcycle and an interest in a service station.

They also, he said, apparently had enough cash to make personal loans to friends, and take pleasure trips.

Savage and Rhodes, working with Kern officers, spent last week keeping the home under surveillance. They impounded both cash and property found there. It is being held as evidence in the case in South San Francisco.

Rhodes said Biagi has been in Atascadero since last May, when he was convicted, in the county, of child molestation.

Many of the items came from San Francisco firms, as well as homes in the South San Francisco, Daly City, San Bruno and Broadmoor areas, Rhodes said.

Biagi, Rhodes added, had been employed by a janitorial service in San Francisco prior to being sent to Atascadero.

Mrs. Biagi had lived at 132 Bruno, Daly City, prior to moving to Bakersfield.

SSF P-TA 'Calls Clan'

Avalon School P-TA is "Calling in the Clan" Thursday at 8 p.m. for celebration of Founders Day and the school's fifteenth birthday, to be held in the all-purpose room in the South San Francisco school.

The flag ceremony will be lead by Boy Scout Troop 79 and Girl Scout troop will sing the national anthem and "America the Beautiful."

Also on the program is to be a talk given by Judy Welch, foreign exchange student, on her trip to Sweden last summer. This will be illustrated by films.

All past presidents and honorary life members have been invited to attend as well as all new members.

member of the board for eight years and this was the first time such a situation had arisen.

He asked the board to study the possibility of changing the meeting night to Tuesday.

This would also enable residents of Daly City to attend Monday night council meetings, Douglas said.

$11,300,000 Development Is On Way

Plans for Franciscan Heights, an $11,300,000 development in the heart of Daly City, were presented to the city council Monday night for study.

Richard Price, president of Price Parks, announced his organization had purchased the 18-acre tract, adjacent to Westmoor High School, last month.

Price told councilmen, during a study session Monday, several models would be ready for viewing "sometime in June."

The single-family residences planned for the development will sell in the $35,000 to $37,000 price range. Duplexes and some 250 apartment units will also be built.

Franciscan Heights is part of the over-all "Lakeview Park" tract and surrounds dedicated park lands, according to city officials.

Charles J. Kennan, Palo Alto real estate executive, will handle all sales and transactions, Price said.

several times in the past, requiring the city to furnish sand bags to keep water from entering homes."

"Additional filling of surrounding acreage will add to the hazard of future flooding of Francisco Drive, Sonora Avenue and Portola Avenue."

Councilmen advised the homeowners to file written statemtns with the Corps of Engineers and to appear at a public hearing scheduled February 28.

2nd Thoughts For Owner

Bernard Price, owner of the Vallemar Garde Orchid Farm in Pacifica, might have second thoughts about school youngsters cutting through his property en route to school.

Price last week reported to police that all the windows in a hothouse, a car and a house trailer had been broken.

He blamed school-bound youngsters who use a path that crosses his hilltop property.

Optimism Over Tanforan

lawyers and new engineers, and we are here to assure you that progress is now being made toward development of this project," Lyon said.

The Sunset Petroleum Corp. assumed complete control of the project about two months ago after the Tavares Corp., the original developer, failed to exercise an option to buy the site.

Lyon, director of real estate planning for Sunset, told commissioners he has commitments for about half the shopping space in the proposed mall, and is "negotiating favorably" with "another large department store."

He said construction on the project could begin as early as next December if "corporate approval from the Penney firm is gained within the next two months, as expected."

"This project is more than just a plan now," Lyon said, "and we are vigorously pursuing development."

San Bruno councilmen voted to allow portions of the Tanforan site to revert to commercial zoning last week because of a "lack of progress" on the part of developers.

SAN BRUNO POLICEMAN Leroy Nelson will be promoted to lieutenant next week, Chief Russell Cunningham announced. Nelson, a veteran of ten years' service with the department, will fill the post vacated by Lt. Fred Wootan, who is leaving the department to accept a position in a private security system at Lake Tahoe. Nelson is married and has five children. He was selected for the post on the basis of competitive examinations, Cunningham said.

Library At S.S.F. Is Dedicated

South San Francisco's new $800,000 public library was dedicated in ceremonies Sunday, and city library director Dr. Robert Alvarez and staff members hosted an open house and inspection tour of the facility.

The library was opened to the public about two months ago, but the formal dedication date was postponed to coincide with the fiftieth anniversary of the city's library system.

In addition to the library, the award-winning Kauffman Arena Theatre adjacent to the building was dedicated Sunday. The theater, designed by San Francisco Architect Garo Dorian, received the 1966 Governor's Award for Excellence in Design.

It is named for former City Treasurer Edward Kauffman, who served more than 50 years as a city official.

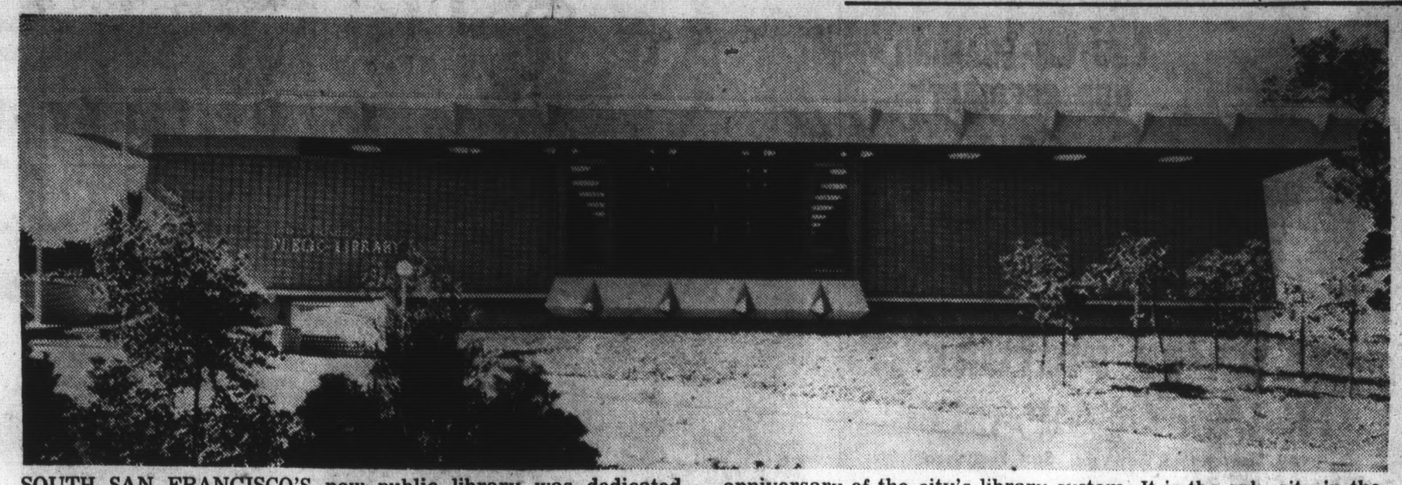
A plaque also was donated in memory of Miss Rue Clifford, a long-time member of the library board of trustees, who was instrumental in early plans for the new building.

The new facility was first conceived in 1956, and several years of planning went into its development. It was built on a "pay-as-you-go" basis, with the federal government contributing $125,000 for an emergency operating center in the basement.

Noted art collector Frank de Bellis spoke at the dedication ceremonies. Also on the speaking program are Mrs. Laurence Varni, president of the Library Board of Trustees, Mayor Frank Bertucelli, Dr. Alvarez and a number of other city officials and church and civic leaders.

A numer of displays, including the de Bellis collection of Renaissance books and the Pacific Telephone Company's antique telephone collection, were on exhibit.

A "complete historical collection" on South San Francisco, compiled by the library trustees, was also displayed.



SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO'S new public library was dedicated Sunday, along with the Kauffman Area Theatre. The library was completed about two months ago, but the dedication ceremony was postponed until this week to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the city's library system. It is the only city in the country with two main libraries, according to Library Administrator Dr. Robert Alvarez.

Truck Review Set Up in San Bruno

San Bruno Mayor Karney Barberian appointed a two-man committee to meet with neighboring city officials and attempt to co-ordinate trucking ordinances Tuesday night.

The committee, consisting of City Manager Gerard S. Vergeer and City Attorney Joseph Galligan, will contact officials at South San Francisco, Millbrae, and Burlingame in an effort to "make certain the trucking routes and ordinances of the adjoining cities are compatible."

San Bruno councilmen have delayed action on trucking matters for more than three years because of a pending lawsuit. A South San Francisco dirt haul contractor, Nicholas Ratkovich, attempted to have the city's trucking ordinance declared unconstitutional.

Both the Superior Court at Redwood City and the district appeals court in San Francisco upheld the trucking ordinance, and the supreme court declined to hear the case last fall.

"We are ready to proceed with standardizing our trucking regulations," Barberian said this week, "and wish to cooperate with our neighboring cities, who have trucking problems of their own."

Rough Day For Birch Supporter

Last Tuesday just wasn't Basil I. Gladieux's day at the College of San Mateo.

Gladieux, of Pacifica, a speaker at the College on invitation of the school's Liberal Caucus (a campus political organization), spoke to a small gathering in the school's Little Theater on the merits of the John Birch Society but a number of things went wrong according to the campus newspaper, The San Matean.

Namely:

No one was present from the Liberal Caucus to introduce the speaker.

In fact, no one from the Liberal Caucus was present at all.

The microphone failed to function properly.

Many in the audience "walked out on the Bircher" when he failed to answer questions to their satisfaction.

And, finally, the school paper referred to the guest speaker as "Bazel Gladiex".

Truly a bleak day for Pacifica's leading John Birch Society member.

6 Nabbed In Raid in S.S.F.

South San Francisco police arrested six men on gambling charges Thursday morning in a mass raid at bar and restaurant on Terminal Court.

Seven policemen raided the establishment after an officer observed a dice game going on in a back room about 9 a.m. Thursday, according to Lt. James Keane.

Keane said the six players were using "liars dice" cups, and about $20 was on the table when officers entered the establishment.

Arrested were a San Bruno man, Hiroshi Hiroshima; Alfred Vannucci and Nicholas D'Acquisto, of San Francisco; Robert Boyajian and Dominio Ferrante, Sunnyvale, and Andrew Brasili, Campbell.

All six were released after posting $110 bond.

Reticulata Camellias Are Growing

A group of superbly grown Reticulata Camellia plants are growing in the garden of Mrs. Thomas Dillon, 12 Del Monte Place, San Mateo.

This camellia planting had been started by the late Thomas Dillon, a camellia fancier. The plants were more compact than most of the reticulata plants we have seen and when we commented upon this fact, Mrs. Dillon told us that her late husband had pruned and shaped the plants while they were small so as to prevent the inherent legginess which is part of the reticulata heritage. Many reticulata experts had advised us against pruning reticulatas or even taking the flowers with stems. We had shortened the branches on our Captain Rawes at one time and those cut branches failed to produce new growth near the tips so, we felt the experts must be right. But here in the Dillon garden was the exception that every rule must encounter to be of value.

Not only were the camellias lushly compact in the Dillon garden they were all six to seven feet tall and heavily loaded with huge six- and seven-inch blossoms. The heavy crop of flowers refuted another observation by the experts that "reticulata camellias were sparse bloomers."

D.C. Council Pushes Car Wash Law

The Daly City Council slammed through a law last week governing the use and operation of automatic car washes in the city over strong objections of Atty. Robert Hunter.

Appearing on behalf of the M & R Car Wash, Hunter blasted the council for pushing the new ordinance "onto the books" and labeled it a "punitive measure aimed at my client because of a civil suit filed by the M & R Car Wash against the city last November."

There are two car washes in Daly City: the M & R Car Wash on Sullivan Avenue constructed in a C-2 zone, and the still unonened wash on the corner of Hillside Boulevard and Market Street built in a C-1 zone.

Residents of the Hillside car wash are violently protesting its construction primarily because of the nearness of private homes on three sides of the business and an adjacent elementary school building.

The Hillside Homeowners' Associaton presented their objections concerning the wash at several council meetings and picketed the site throughout its construction.

Co-owners of the M & R Car Wash — Ross Schendel and Mario Caprini — quietly filed suit against the city, and the new car wash owners, last November 31 listing three main points in their complaint: (1) What is meant in the zoning ordinance by a "car wash"; (2) The fact that former City Atty. Paul Hupf (now municipal judge) determined a Use Permit was not required by the Hillside Boulevard car wash was an unauthorized determination; and, (3) a writ of review that a building permit was issued instead of a Use Permit at the C-1 olcation.

Hunter contends that "if Hupf's ruling is allowed to stay on the books anyone can open a car wash on practically any corner in Daly City."

Although there are numerous C-1 zoned corner lots in the city, few C-2 areas are still open for new business "and they are expensive," according to Hunter.

The new ordinance is identical to stipulations attached to the Hillside Boulevard wash's business license, namely that hours of operation are limited to between 6 a.m. and 11 p.m.; that an adult attendant be on the premises between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.; and self-service car wash operators have 30 days to cnform with the new law or face severe penalties ($500 or six months in jail or both).

"Are there any proponents of this new law here tonight?" Hunter asked the council Tuesday. "Ha anyone asked for this car wash ordinance?"

City Atty. Albert Polonsky answered, "There may or may not be, but I don't see what this has to do with the ordinance."

Hunter said the new law apparently was directed against his client as a punitive measure for filing the suit against the city, "inasmuch as I am unaware of any complaints stemming from my client's operations on Sullivan Avenue."

El Camino Names 11 Top Seniors

The faculty of El Camino High School has selected 11 seniors to receive outstanding student awards, Robert Keropian, principal, announced today. The purpose of the awards is to recognize and honor outstanding seniors whose scholastic attainment, sense of civic responsibility, and evidence of leadership give most promise of future success and service to society.

Students selected to receive Outstanding Student Certificates in specific fields are: Mathematics, JoAnne Bassford; sceince, Gay Lee Gulbrandson; music, William Bridges; English, Linda Mitchell; social sciences, Nila Nchols; foreign language, Margaret Gorham; business, Anita Leischner.

Students selected to receive Plaques in general fields are: Science and mathematics, Rebecca Donovan; fine arts, James Moran; liberal arts, Keith Falsarella; vocational arts, James Pappas.

The four plaque winners are eligible to compete for county-wide awards to be given at a later date.

Crucial N.P.L. Clashes Tuesday

Westmoor High and Terra Nova were scheduled to break at least part of the three-way tie for first place in the North Peninsula League Tuesday on the Terra Nova court.

The other contender for first place, South San Francisco, was facing a relatively mild challenge from Oceana.

Westmoor, Terra Nova and South San Francisco each had an 8-2 record at Post press time.

Meanwhile, Capuchino was facing a showdown with Hillsdale over the M.P.L. leadership. Both teams stood at 7-2 going into Tuesday's game.

High School Hunch Play Results Told

Eight teams saw action last week in the Daly City Recreation Department's High School Hunch Basketball League at the War Memorial Community Center.

Opening victories went to the Saints, Marchbank Park, Vikings and Cartwrights.

The Saints' victory came at the expense of the Moonshiners' 41-20. The Saints, led by Mike Ottersteat, Frank Orass and Joe Skaal appear to be the favorites.

Marchbank Park toppled the Playboys 40-30. Big gun for Marchbank was Phil Randolph who scored 20 points.

Bruce Davidson & Gerry Mahood paced the Vikings in their win over the Lakers 40-30. Mahood was high with 12 and Davidson hit for 10.

One of the best games of the night was the Cartwrights-Cinquapations Contest. The Cartwrights squeezed by 47-42 in overtime.

Cap Scores 108 Against Falcons To Set Record

By BOB NYLUND
Post Correspondent

Capuchino High School holds the all-time San Mateo County high school basketball scoring record today.

In beating Crestmoor High School, 108-87, last week at Crestmoor, the Mustangs broke the old record set by Sequoia in 1952, when the Tribe scored 100 points against San Mateo. Menlo-Atherton scored 98 points in a game last year.

Greg Holmes, a 6-1 senior, tied the old Sequoia record with 4:56 left in the final quarter on a charity. Five seconds later he broke it with a dazzling fielder.

Practically the entire Mustang squad saw action. Jim Kauffman was top scorer with 25, but the rest of the scoring was well distributed.

Victim Crestmoor set a new scoring record of its own, 87, but the Falcons were hardly in a celebrating mood.

Crestmoor mentor John Christgau questioned "What happened?" Then he tried to explain the disaster. "We were flat . . . it was tough after beating San Mateo Wednesday, when we performed a minor miracle."

"We exhausted ourselves," Christgau continued. "We were up for this game verbally, but not physically."

Capuchino completely dominated and overwhelmed the Falcons in the first half, led by Kauffman's 24 points and spectacular shooting by Roger Carmine (including three consecutive buckets in only 34 seconds.)

Coach Johnson used his entire bench in the second half, enabling his reserves to get more experience and also helping Crestmoor to get some points. The Falcons closed the gap from 65-27 at the half, to 87-58, with 59 seconds left in the third, but the Mustangs pulled farther ahead again.

Subs Take Over

Going into the final period, Cap led, 90-64. Cap was using mostly third stringers by now and Crestmoor was able to make an impressive performance, but it was too late. The Falcons were credited with slowing down Cap's ball game, outscoring them in the entire second half, 59-43, but it was certainly a case of "the early bird gets the worm."

Capuchino's previous high score was 95, against Crestmoor the first time this year. Crestmoor's previous high was 86, against Half Moon Bay in a practice contest.

Contrary to the much-publicized statement that Jerry Kollmann would never play again for Crestmoor, he actually did for several minutes and scored a charity. Christgau said Kollmann's doctor felt "the exercise would be good for him." Kollmann injured his left knee against Hillsdale. The 6-1 senior had recently become the Falcons' spirit man and the crowd gave him a standing ovation when he made his appearance.

The frosh-soph game was almost forgotten, although Crestmoor won roundly, 76-62. Matt Kriletich made 32 points for Capuchino, but the junior Falcons were too swift and accurate. Crestmoor had only a 38-31 lead at the half, but use of the fast break in the second gave them a bigger margin.

Westlake Bowl

Doreen Daneri received her coveted 300 game award last Sunday morning when she was presented with a beautiful ring in recognition of her 300 game last month.

Ken Lewis shot the first 600 series of his career last week when he rolled games of 220-161-227 for a total of 608 in the 99'ers League. Larry Robeson beat him by one pin to take high series for the night on games of 183-231 and 195. Leading lady was Ellen Lambur with a 179 game and 520 series.

Last week-end was Bank of America weekend at Westlake as over 300 bowlers were on hand for the annual tournament.

The qualifying round of annual Men's Team Handicap Tournament ends February 28 at midnight. With one of every five entries qualifying for the Sectional Rolloff, this is an excellent opportunity for low average bowlers to compete for sizable cash prizes with an investment of only $3.25 per bowler. Teams of five may bowl anytime.

Westlake Bowler Bob Hood rolled strikes at the right time last week as he won the monthly Professional Central California Bowlers' Tournament and took home first prize of $500.00. Two near perfect games were rolled during the competition held at Mel's Southshore Bowl.

Ginny O'Brien, Bev Coughlin and Carol Barnes were the high rollers for the week in the Tuesday morning Rebels League. Ginny had a 194 game and 525 series, Bev 188-511 and Carol 170-506. Bev had an added honor of shooting more than 100 pins over her average.

Vince Ferrigno rolled a big 230 game and 633 series to top the 850 American Scratch League for the week. Ernie Boden took high game honors with 235. Other high rollers were Phil Van Tassel with 223-623, and P.B. Witt with a 210 game and 618 series.

Doris Barros led the high rollers in the Wednesday morning ladies Morning Glory League, shooting a big 205 game and 553 series. Winnie Stewart and Rosella Intaschi tied for second high series with 503, Winnie with a 182 game and Rosella with 177. Gloria Gaggiano rolled a 205 game, Jessie St. Piere a 201 and Vi Lindsey converted the 2-7-10 aplit.

Veterans League bowler of the week was Walt Fuller with a 208 game and 588 series.

A big 198 game and 573 series by Larry Oppenheim took top honors for the week in the Southwest Handicap League.

As the new G.E.T. League started, Marian Frazier led the ladies with a 187 game and 516 series as Herb Seeley topped the men with 213 and 580.

Barry's Eyes

Le Pacint

All right, you ready?

We've figured out yhy Rick Barry is such a great shooter.

His eyes. He has huge eyes. Take a good look at only sees the basket, he must see around and behind it. The basketball aficionados will tell you he has it. The basketball aficianados will tell you he has "the touch," but don't you believe it. It's those eyes.

We'll admit this startling new theory has not as yet gained general professional acceptance, but believe-you-me, it's the next great scouting break-through.

This new approach wasn't devised overnight. It took minutes of study. Think about it. Think of the great shooters past and present, and tell us one who had squinty eyes.

OF COURSE, the competition will be tougher, because now the basketball scouts will have to compete with Hollywood talent scouts, who as you know won't even offer a screen test unless the prospect looks like a space-age Eddie Cantor and has a big chin cleft. On the other hand, fair is fair, and the day might come when the Warrior lineup reads: Hunter, Hudson, O'Toole, Donahue and Edwards, with Chamberlain (Richard) playing Havlicek.

Come to think of it, Barry does have a cleft. . . . Well, he WOULD be more effective as a fighter pilot than Noel Harrison.

THEY ALWAYS told Wilt Chamberlain, when he played here, especially, that he'd be more valuable playing a balanced game, but evidently he didn't become a believer until this year with Philadelphia's powerhouse.

True, he's averaging "only" 24 points per game as against his lifetime mark of close to 40, but whereas he used to take over 30 shots a game, he now takes less than 14.

In other words, he's shooting better, proportionately, is still among the leaders in rebounds, has moved up among the leaders in assists, and is reportedly playing a 100 per cent better defensive game.

THE FORMATION of the new pro basketball league represents the one time when we'll go along with the people who claim there's a need for more professional opportunities in a particular sport.

We think that professional baseball and football have proven that talent can be spread too thin, to the point, in fact, where the bottom two or three teams are no better than fair minor league clubs.

But there has always been a need for pro basketball expansion, a point which has continually been dramatically emphasized by the fact that only about 10 rookies make the pro league each year.

More schools in this country participate in basketball than in any other sport, and it's ludicrous to think that out of the thousands of graduated college boys each year, only 10 of them are good enough to play the game professionally.

IF SCIENTISTS and psychologists don't start leaving sports alone, we fans and participants are going to have to figure out other ways of spending our leisure time or die from embarrassment.

Like this report out of New York a couple of weeks ago, for instance. Seems N.Y. wants to marry its new state lottery to horse racing, and has been studying surveys commissioned by tracks during the past 10 years which were origanally designed to produce a profile of the average $2 bettor, for obvious public relations and promotional reasons.

Roosevelt Raceway studied two surveys, one by Dr. Bayard Badenhausen and Joseph Smith, and another by a Dr. Ernest Dichter, and the results were somewhat surprising even to a sophisticated person such as your writer, who years ago recognized the TRUE implications in "Casey at the Bat."

Among other less shocking things, the Badenhausen-Smith report stated that women, "derived (from harness races) a vicarious sexual thrill from the tempo of the evening and the 'forbidden-pleasure' aura."

Now, we can't guess what type of promotions Roosevelt Raceway might eventually derive from that bit of information, and you can imagine what you want, but the least that can happen is a good swift swat in the mouth like a single friend of ours got recently from a pretty young thing who happened to have read a New York Times article concerning the Badenhausen-etc. report the day before our friend invited her to Bay Meadows to see the harness races.

BILL RIGNEY was recently quoted in the Sporting News as saying that for the first time since their inception, his Angels will field a "major leaguer" at each position.

Rigney wasn't cute, but literal. When expansion hit, there were indeed men on major league rosters who could never have made it otherwise (and we're not so sure that isn't still so).

Not that there weren't certain things that all of them could do in the major league style to a certain degree, but there were in many cases more things that they couldn't do like big leaguers. Which just about describes the good high minor league player.

Managers often talk about balance, and fans somehow get the idea that they mean something like a one glove man to match a slugger, a fast man to offset a slow man, etc. What the managers mean is having a "major leaguer" at each position, because a genuine major leaguer can generally do all well, and one of these kind at each position assures built-in balance without a managerial aug-gling act.

IF RALPH HOUK really goes through with the Mickey Mantle experiment at first base, we predict a catastrophy.

Critics of the move keep talking of the quick stops and starts and turns a first baseman must make, and cite Mantle's bad knees as the big risk, but forget that. The real danger is a poor throw to the inside of the bag, a play which will take Mantle directly into the path of the oncoming runner. If Mantle's bad legs don't react quickly enough to take him out of that situation, goodby bad shoulder, legs, and the whole career, already.

Aussie Star Heaps Praise On Lindgren

By RON REID
Post Sports Writer

The class and grace of a champion overshadowed his most resounding defeat Friday night at the Cow Palace where a pair of fuzzy-cheeked collegians stole the applause and thunder from their better-known rivals.

Australia's Ron Clarke, holder of seven world records and the finest distance runner in the world today, was soundly and decisively beaten by little Gerry Lindgren in the Golden Gate Invitational two-mile run—a David vs. Goliath confrontation that brought the crowd of 8,500 to its feet screaming with excitement.

Still receovering from the strength-sapping effect of virus influenza, Clarke was no match for the skinny, endearing running robot from Washington State, who led the race most of its distance, saw Clarke take over with four laps to go before surging into a lead he momentuously increased through the last 300 yards.

Clarke, who set a world record of 8:28.8 for the distance one year before on the same track, finished 15 yards back of the Washington whiz kid, sadly ending the last indoor race he will ever run in the United States.

"I didn't have anything left at the finish," Clarke said after the race. "I was at his mercy, so to speak. I thought that the excitement of the crowd might boost me along when I passed him, but it didn't."

Clarke admitted that his physical condition was "terrible," but refused to take anything away from one of the most impressive victories of Lindgren's career.

"I still could have been in the best condition," Clarke said," and he might have beat me. He's very good, he's great."

"When I passed him, I was really trying to bluff him. It was sort of a gamble. I knew if I stayed back, he'd beat me anyhow."

In one of the other outstanding efforts of the night, Stanford's Jim Eshelman came through with the third's highest indoor pole vault mark in history, a 16-10½ effort that has only been topped by Bob Seagren.. The mark set a new meet and Cow Palace record and earned the former Cubberley High School vaulter honors as outstanding performer of the meet.

Jeff Chase, the former Jefferson High School star, also came through with a life-time best in the pole vault, where he scaled 16-7 for third place.

Lindgren's victory over Clarke was absolutely amazing to the 120-pound youngster who pulled it off.

"I can't believe it," Lindgren said in a squeaky voice that belies his athletic maturity, "Ron Clarke has kind of been my idol, I guess. I think I've met him five or six times and every time, he's left me in the dust. I was just glad to be close with two laps to go. I thought he'd take off and leave me in the dust."

The race was Lindgren's third two mile this year and his 8:32.6 clocking was one second slower than an earlier win at Seattle. Clarke posted an 8:35.7 mark.

Lindgren said he might run again in the Bay Area, in the National AAU Championships at Oakland Arena March 3-4, but that it was not yet definite.

Lindgren also said that he was more happy at beating Clarke than at breaking the record for the event, an objective which he had planned to gain.

"I knew if I wanted to win, I'd have to be pretty close to the record to do it," he said.

The race developed solely into a showdown between Lindgren and Clarke when Tracy Smith of Oregon State scratched before the start and Jim Grelle, the veteran miler, dropped out after seven laps with a sore foot.

Clarke said he was tired even before Grelle quit the competition.

"It hit me in the legs," he said. "It felt like I had a bear hanging on to each of them." His disappointment was not so much a product of the defeat as with the setback of his physical condition.

"I'm not disappointed in losing, but that I could drop off form so quick in ten days," Clarke said. "I had ten days in bed with the flu and just recovered from that ten days' ago.

Clarke also discounted his chances in the upcoming Australian championships one week from today. "I better not enter," he said. "I'm supposed to be in the 1,500 and 5,000 meters."

Tommy Smith and Lee Evans, the San Jose State sprint stars who were respectively scheduled to run the 440 and 600, passed up the individual events but led the Spartans to a sensational world record performance in the mile relay.

With Smith anchoring in a sizzling 46.5, the Spartans posted a 3:14.1, the best-ever for a 160-yard track.

Other notable performances came in the high hurdles, where Don Shy of San Diego State ran seven seconds flat for a Cow Palace record, and in the 600, where ageless Jack Yerman beat Ken Shackelford in 1:10.2.

In addition to Chase, the best performance by a San Mateo County athlete came in the high school hurdles, where Randy White of Mills won the event in 7.5 to equal the meet and Cow Palace record.

White, who competed in the State Meet last year as a half-miler, burst over the final barrier for the win.

Amog other county athletes, Belmont's Dennis Phillips vaulted 16 feet for a fourth place; Al Rockwell finished fifth in the hurdles; Pat Winslow and Janet Svendsen took respective third and fourth-place finishes in the women's hurdles; Oregon State's John Lilly finished second in the 880 in 1:54.4 as Jerry Tallon of Cal finished sixth, and the Millbrae Lions' girls' relay team was second.

Police Cars Too 'Slow' For Freeway Race

Two North County youths were arrested last week after a high speed automobile chase during which speeds in excess of 130 miles per hour were reached on the Bayshore Freeway.

John Pleskach, 21, 494 Oriente Street, Daly City, and Lyle Ellison, 18, 395 Roblar Avenue, Millbrae, were charged with 11 counts of vehicle code violations after a ten-minute chase which began in Burlingame and ended in San Mateo at about 1:40 a.m. today.

According to the Burlingame police report, officers Bill Morgan and Larry Nofziger were patrolling in Burlingame's industrial area when they observed to two suspects engaging in a speed contest on Adrian Road.

They apparently saw the police car and accelerated to about 70 miles per hour and drove out Rollins Road onto Millbrae Avenue and then south onto the Bayshore.

Radioing for help, the Burlingame unit gave chase at speeds of up to about 110 miles per hour but lost ground to the two speeding suspects.

The Highway Patrol entered the chase at the Peninsula Avenue overpass and caught Pleskach after he had turned into San Mateo on the Third Avenue cutoff. He was apprehended near the intersection of Fifth Avenue and North Idaho Street.

At the same time, Ellison had slowed down in an attempt to blend in with the rest of the traffic but the Burlingame police unit spotted the youth and pulled him over to the side of the freeway near the Third Avenue cutoff.

The Highway Patrol reported that its vehicle reached speeds of about 130 miles per hour in its pursuit of the pair.

The two were brought back to be booked at the Burlingame police station and their cars were impounded.

Pleskach is a mechanic for a San Francisco automobile dealer and Ellison is a student at Mills High School in Millbrae.

Gunman Hits D.C. Theatre

A gunman, armed with what Daly City police suspect is an air pistol, held up the Mission Drive-in theater ticket booth and fled with more than $90.

The man approached the booth on foot shortly before 10 a.m., brandished a pistol and ordered the attendant to "hand over all the money."

Grabbing up the night's receipts, the gunman raced down Guttenberg Street and disappeared into the darkness.

Theater attendants described the man as between 25-30 years old, sporting green "Granny" glasses and wearing a whie windbreaker.

FIRST HAND LOOK at municipal government was gained over an 11-day period that ended Monday night in Daly City for Jefferson and Westmoor High School students as part of Youth In Government program. The youngsters filled in the various city posts, spent over three hours apiece with their counterparts and this week conducted a regular council session of their own, with most city officials sitting back watching for a change. Crash Hurts S.S.F. Couple

A South San Francisco couple were struck down by an automobile as they tried to walk across Thirty-first Avenue last Thursday. Both suffered head injuries.

According to the hospital report this morning, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin K. Wolary, 831 Baden Street, are in satisfactory condition after being hit by the car driven by Margene Alice Lorton, 20, 160 San Anselmo Street, San Francisco, at about 7:30 p.m.

Police have recommended that Miss Lorton be cited for violation of the right of way.

According to the police report, the couple were attempting to cross Thirty-first in the crosswalk. Miss Lorton was traveling west in the middle lane at an estimated 25 miles per hour and apparently did not see the pair.

She struck them both and knocked them into the air. They landed about 25 feet from the point of impact. Both were bleeding profusely from their head wounds.

They were taken by ambulance to Mills Memorial Hospital and then transferred to Peninsula.

The accident was witnessed by Shirley O'Malley, 227 Lyndhurts Avenue, Belmont.

$1,000 Theft In Burglary

More than $1,000 in loot was taken in two South San Francisco burglaries Thursday, police reported.

A television set was stolen from the Maple Avenue apartment of Jean Marques and carried down three flights of stairs while the owner was away at work.

The home of Combs Mace on Fourth Lane was also broken into, and jewelry valued at $800 was taken from a bedroom. Stolen were a watch, broach and necklace.

April 10 Trial Of Suspect in Death

Trial of Andreas Sedeno, accused of the murder of a Daly City police officer, was scheduled for April 10.

Sedeno, who has been in Atascadero State Hospital since last August, pleaded innocent to the charge yesterday in an appearance before Superior Judge Louis B. Dematteis. A plea of not guilty by reason of insanity was also entered on his behalf by his court-appointed lawyer, Dennis L. Woodman.

Judge Dematteis appointed two psychiatrists, Drs. Walter Rapaport and Robert Quirmbach, to examine the defendant prior to trial.

Sedeno, 33, of 16 Shakespeare Street, Daly City, is accused of the murder of Police Officer Richard Klass, 25. Klass was shot with his own gun May 5 during a struggle with Sedeno, who had been arrested on a charge of indecent exposure. The struggle ensued after Sedeno tried to escape and was caught by the officer.

Klass appeared on the way to recovery until he died during exploratory surgery June 9. Woodman said has been informed that the officer died of cardiac arrest while under an anesthetic. The attorney indicated that the defense will attempt to prove that the officer's death was not a direct consequence of the bullet wound.

Last August Sedeno was declared to be insane and unable to stand trial. Doctors at Atascadero have now certified that he has recovered enough to be able to cooperate with his attorney in his own defense.

Woodman said Sedeno refused to enter any other plea than a straight plea of not guilty to the charge of murder and another charge of attempted murder. The attorney said he entered the plea of not guilty by reason of insanity to protect the defendant's rights.

Buick's new California GS:

New Buick California GS. We wanted to find out, "What kind of car would Californians really like?" One thing we've discovered is you dislike dull things. So we put chrome wheels on the California GS as standard equipment. You crave excitement. We dared not put anything less than a 340 cu. in. V-8 engine and Super Turbine automatic transmission in the California GS. Little surprises turn you on. You wouldn't expect to find a deluxe steering wheel in a car of this price. Surprise! You're easily driven to distraction. You want a feel of the road and easy handling. That's why California GS has heavy-duty stabilizer. You work hard for your money. The price of California GS is pretty near what you'd expect to pay for an economy car. A visit to your Buick dealer will remind you of the happy day you first set foot in California.

Get into a California GS at the Buick Value Carnival.

Westmoor Edges Out South S.F.; Three-way Tie for N.P.L. Lead

SSF, Westmoor, Terra Nova Vie

For the third time this season there was a three-way tie for first place in the North Peninsula League Tuesday. And after Friday night's performance, the South San Francisco High School Warriors should count themselves lucky they are able to share one-third of that honor.

The Warriors, going flatter than a steamrolled pancake, pulled a near impossible feat by blowing a 15-point lead in the final four minutes of play and losing to a gutty bunch from Westmoor High School, 69-68. As of Tuesday, SSF, Westmoor and Terra Nova all had 8-2 league records.

"It was the greatest comeback of any sports team ever here at Westmoor," grinned an extremely proud coach Tony Giamonna. "The boys never gave up and it really paid off."

The Warriors never trailed in the first three quarters as they built up leads of 11, 12 and 13 points. But the pesky Rams, who earlier in the year handed the Warriors' their only other loss, 49-46, kept pecking away with their speciality, long shots, and keeping the game respectable.

With their leading scorer, Gary Soules, out with five fouls, the Rams started to make their move with four minutes left. Trailing 65-50, the Rams started blasting away from the outside as the Warriors were content to sit on what they considered a safe lead.

Still, with a little over two minutes left the Warriors had a 12-point margin. But their defense went completely sour as guard Joe Anible hit seven points, three buckets and a free throw, in the final 1:50 of the game to bring the Rams to within one and finally out in front with just 17 seconds left. But the Warriors still weren't dead.

Trailing 69-68, SSF's Ron Beall, who had banged through 32 points, had a chance for the 33rd on a one-plus-one foul shot. He missed and then center Steve Venters missed a follow-up.

The Warriors still had another crack at it when Larry Alsterlind shot from 20 feet with just three seconds left. He missed, but Beall was again fouled on the rebound by Anible. With two seconds left Beall had another try from the foul line but missed again, and the Warriors had pulled one of the biggest 'el-foldos' in recent history.

Westmoor scored the final 13 points of the game and outscored the Warriors 19-3 during the final minutes of play.

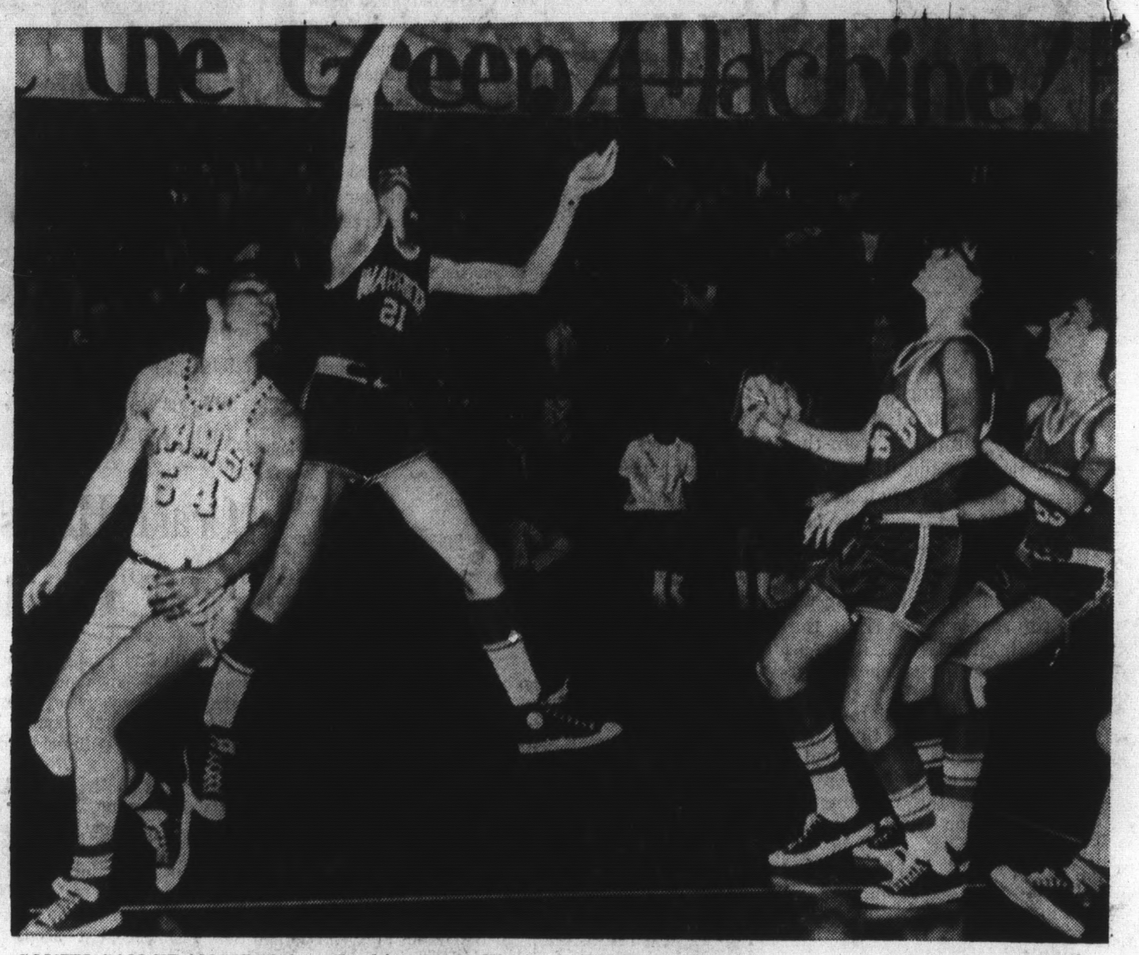
El Camino High School, meanwhile, got all 'fouled' up and lost a tough game to Jefferson, 60-53. The Indians went to the line 30 times while El Camino got only 13 attempts.

Willie Redmond scored 19 points and handled most of the passing and rebounding chores for the Indians. Jeff pulled away early to an 11-4 lead and never let the Colts get closer than four, and that came just once at 41-37.

Guard Steve Jones scored 13 for the Colts before fouling out early in the third quarter and after that the stuttering Colt offense fizzled out completely.

Oceana's quintet reached an all-time high of five league wins Friday night when the Sharks took a 73-50 win over winless Half Moon Bay. The Cougars are now 0-11.

Rick Warne started his second string against the Cougars but had to bring in his first five after HMB stayed within two points at the end of the first quarter. But a quick splurge in the opening minutes of the second period put Oceana completely out of danger.



SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO lost the big one to Westmoor last week, but the game frosh-soph team preserved something of the Warrior honor in beating the Westmoor junior leaguers. South San Francisco won the frosh-soph game, 52-49, while the varsity team dropped a close one, 69-68. (Post Photo)

Races Day Will Benefit Mary's Help

Mrs. Frank Kelechava, president of Mary's Help Hospital Guild, has announced that the guild will sponsor a "Day at the Races" at Golden Gate Fields on Wednesday, March 15.

The afternoon will be the kick-off event for the guild's annual Fuchsia Ball to be held in Maya. Ball chairman, Mrs. William Corbett, has appointed Mrs. Frank Lawson to be chairman of the affair.

Tickets will cover Turf Club admission, Terrace buffet luncheon and option of chartered bus transportation from Westlake or free parking at the Turf Club entrance. Tickets and information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lawson or Mrs. William Corbett.

Proceeds of this event benefit the purchase of advanced equipment for Mary's Help Hospital.

Lasswell and Co. was in charge of arrangements.

Bearded 'Fagin' Sells to Pusher, 15

A 15-year-old Pacifica youth was arrested by juvenile authorities last week on a charge that he sold or furnished another 15-year-old with four marrijuana cigarettes.

The youth's father told Pacifica police juvenile officers that his son had told him he had purchased eight marijuana cigarettes from a bearded man at a San Bruno shopping center and of reselling them to another boy, assertedly in the Pacific Manor region.

The father asked police to take necessary action.

There also had been a fight between the suspect and the alleged receiver over payment for the cigarettes. This fight reportedly took place Friday night at the Pacifica Manor Beach.

The arrested youth is said to have smoked four of the cigarettes himself, and sold or given the remaining four to the other 15 year old.

The youth named as receiver denies buying or receiving the cigarettes, although he told authorities he had smoked portions of the cigarettes.

"I never in my life smoked a complete joint," the youth added, however.

MINT FLAVORING

Ever stir a little mint jelly into cooked green peas to serve with roast lamb or broiled lamb chops?

Rush Road, County Asks

A speed-up of the schedule for construction of San Bruno Freeway was urged last week by the County Board of Supervisors.

County Engr. Don S. Wilson told the board that a special committee that has been studying traffic problems in and around International Airport has asked all jurisdictions to pass resolutions requesting that the San Bruno Freeway work be advanced.

The committee, Wilson said, considers the freeway vital to the future growth of the airport and does not believe the present 1974 completion date is soon enough.

Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald is chairman of the committee.

The board asked Wilson to prepare a resolution for adoption at its next meeting.

Skyline College Bids High

Bids for the first two major buildings for Skyline College in San Bruno came in last Thursday, well above the architect's estimate.

The lowest of four bids submitted on the San Mateo Junior College District project, by the San Francisco contracting firm of Rothschild, Raffin, and Weirick was $5,199,870, approximately 19 per cent higher than the $4,375,420 estimate.

Included in the bidding were the science and technical-vocational classroom complex, and the fine arts center.

Dr. Julio L. Bortolazzo, district superintendent, immediately announced that all bids would be taken under administrative study.

He also moved to cancel a special meeting of the Board of Trustees, scheduled for Monday night, at which the bids were to be reviewed.

In addition, he called for a delay in today's planned advertising for bids on the second Skyline college unit, consisting of physical educational facilities, to permit re-examination of those plans, along with the plans of the first two buildings.

A conference will be held with the architect, John Carl Warnecke & Associates, he said.

The other three contractors who submitted quotations at the bid opening, at College of San Mateo, and their basic totals are:

Guy F. Atkinson, $5,225,000; Williams & Burrows, $5,237,700; and Engstrum & Nourse, $5,285,000.

Jeff Scholars Rank High

Seven Jefferson High School students have placed in the semi-finals of the State Scholarship program.

Gisa Je, Janet Johnson, Teresa Wang, Eleanor Yee, Leonard Anspach, Steve Nagy and Darrill Lee have been asked to send grade transcripts and family financial statements to the College Scholarship Service.

A State Scholarship is not simply an award for academic aptitude and achievement. It is a grant of money to be used for payment of tuition and fees to students who have exceptional ability and achievement, according to correspondence received by the semi-finalists.

D.C. Pair Named To Committee

Peter Markovich and Richard Mills, both Daly City businessmen, have been selected as members of the Mens' Advisory Committee of the Provisional League of Women Voters in North San Mateo County.

Markovich, of Peter Markovich Insurance, is manager of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, while Mills is with the Westlake Branch of the Bank of America in Daly City.

The committee is formed to advise the league as to plans for the LWV annual finance drive.

Other members of the committee include George Edsell (Edsell Realty in Pacifica); Mort Levenson (Levenson Bros. Insurance in Pacifica) and is a past member of the Mens' Advisory Committee for the San Mateo League); William Schneider (Fairway Chevrolet in San Bruno and president of the San Bruno C of C); Milton Bronstein (Bronstein Music in SSF, and a past president of the SSF Boys' Club); and T. Kenneth Ulyatt (president of the United California Bank in SSF).

Mrs. Syd Posner, finance chairman, said the Mens' Advisory Committee met recently with a representative group from the league at a luncheon in the New Southern Restaurant, South San Francisco.

S.M. Planner Is Recovering

Former San Mateo City Planning Commissioner Emory Morris is recovering from major surgery and is home now.

Word was received as to his improved condition by the city planning commission yesterday which unanimously asked that a resolution be prepared expressing the commission's best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Cherry Pie Time

Nell Norton

Since today is the birthday of George Washington, I thought you'd like to do something "special" to celebrate

Wish I had a recipe for Redcoat Stew or Mount Vernon Soup, but—sorry to say—there aren't any around. Possibly some of you good cooks could create such a dish for next year.

We know many facts about the life of our first president, he was born in Virginia in 1732, was a gentleman farmer and surveyor and in the service of his country gave full measure of his devotion, courage and integrity.

Along with the known facts about President Washington are many myths. Did little George really chop down that cherry tree? Well, if he didn't, don't tell the cherry growers of America, because cherry pie has become a sort of standard fare for Washington's birthday, thanks to that myth. And I'm more than willing to go along with the story and suggest pie for the day.

CHERRY PIE

3 cups canned sour red pitted cherries one-third cup canned cherry juice
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
one-fourth teaspoon almond extract
2 Tablespoons flour or tapioca
one-eighth teaspoon salt

Drain the cherries, reserving the juice. Next combine the three cups of drained cherries, one-third cup of cherry juice, one cup of sugar, one teaspoon lemon juice, one-fourth teaspoon almond extract, two tablespoons tapioca or flour, and one-eighth teaspoon salt. If you wish you may add a bit of red food coloring to make a more colorful pie, stir gently and pour into an pastry-lined, unbaked pie pan.

Dot with one tablespoon butter or margarine and cover with top crust. Cut slots in crust to allow steam to escape. Bake in hot oven (450-degrees) for ten minutes then reduce heat to 350-degrees and bake 25 minutes longer.

FOR AN interesting variety make a trellis pie topping by rolling out half of pastry and cutting it into strips one-half inch wide. After placing the filling in the bottom of the piepan, attach the ends of seven strips of crust by moistening and pressing firmly to the edge of pie crust. Twist each strip across the fruit and attach at opposite side of pie. Repeat with seven more strips, criss-crossing to form an attractive trellis top. Flute rim.

YOU DON'T have to restrict yourself to making a cherry pie to celebrate this birthday. Cherries are so much a favorite with everyone that you can use them in many different and interest desserts. For example, this next recipe makes very rich and delicious treat and is simple to make.

CREAMY CREAM DESSERT

1¼ cups graham cracker crumbs
3 Tablespoons sugar
one third cup melted butter or margarine
1 package (8 ounce) cream cheese
1 cup powdered sugar
½ pint whipping cream
1 can cherry pie filling

Crust: Combine the one and one-fourth cup of graham cracker crumbs with the three tablespoons of sugar and one-third cup of melted butter. Mix thoroughly and press into the bottom of a pan (nine by six inches).

Filling: Allow the eight ounces of cream cheese to soften at room temperature. Blend in the one cup of powdered sugar thoroughly and then fold in the whipped cream. Spread over crumb crust.

Top with cherry pie filling and refrigerate until thoroughly chilled, about four hours. Makes eight servings.

This dessert can be made a day ahead if you desire. This note is for future reference. If you are making it today just make it early to give it the full time to mellow.

ONE question that I hear frequently is, "Where do you get your recipes?" My answer is usually, "Here, there and everywhere."

I find good cooks love to share their recipes, and distance is no factor. For Uncle Sam's mails are always coming through (neither sleet, nor rain, nor snow etc.) and many of my letters contain recipes.

This next recipe comes from Eureka, and my niece, Mrs. Martin Schaefer, sent it.

Barbie is a busy minister's wife, or should I say "a minister's busy wife?" I guess both would be equally true.

Either way, she takes time to bake and to share the recipes from her delicious baking experiments with me. And I want to share their next dessert with you good cooks.

A cherry dessert it fits in to our theme today and the red cherry sauce really finishes it off with a splash of delicious color.

CHERRY DESSERT

1 cup sugar
1 cup flour
1 can red cherries, No. 303 size
½ cup cold water
1 teaspoon soda
2 Tablespoons melted butter

Mix the one cup of sugar and one cup of flour together. Add the one can of drained cherries (savin the liquid). Dissolve the one teaspoon of soda in the one-half cup of cold water and stir into flour and sugar. Lastly, add the two tablespoons melted butter. Bake in square eight-by-eight, buttered pan in 350-degree oven for one hour.

SAUCE

1 cup cherry juice
1 cup sugar
1 Tablespoon cornstarch
2 Tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
Red food coloring

In a saucepan combine the one cup of sugar and the one tablespoon cornstarch. Add the one cup of juice (I had to add enough water to make one cup) and cook over moderate heat stirring until the mixture thickens. Then add the two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon vanilla and a few drops of red food coloring. Cook about one minute. Set aside to cool, it thickens more as it cools.

Top your cake with either whipped cream or ice cream and spoon sauce over all.

On this cherry note, I'll close.

Tour of Railroaders Museum by Cub Pack

Cub Scout Pack 182, sponsored by Daly City's Christopher Columbus School Parent-Teacher Association, will be guests of the Golden Gate Model Railroaders at Josephine Randall Junior Museum, 16th Street and Roosevelt Way, San Francisco, February 26 at 1:30 p.m.

They will see a large, scenic layout featuring scale operating models of a famous trains that present an historical cross section of Railroading in California and the West.

Movies on railroading will be shown.

Kurt Poehlman, pack treasurer, will guide the Cubs through the many exhibits.

The Pack visisted the new Standard Oil Building on Market Street, last week and saw operating models of oil wells, animated electrical diagrams of refining processes, and dioramas depicting early operations of the Standard Oil Compnay, in their museum. The trip concluded with a visit to the observation area on the 42nd floor of the new Wells Fargo Building.

The Cubs will have a Blue and Gold banquet in the multi-use room of the Christopher Columbus School tomorrow.

A nymber of awards will be presented.

Ferdinand King Wins Bayshore Member Award

Highlight of the Bayshore P-TAs Founders Day program February 8 was the presentation of the honorary life membership to Ferdinand King.

In presenting the award, Mrs. John Pleskach noted that King has lived in the community for the past 20 years. He has been a member of the Bayshore School District Board for 12 years, two of which as president.

He has three children who attended the Bayshore School, Jefferson High School. Another attended San Francisco State College.

Among his activities was his assistance with the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Camp Fire Girls. Mr. King is a deacon in his church and is a 32nd Degree Mason.

JEANETTE WERTENBERG, 231 Templeton Street, Daly City, has won a $50 cash award offered by the Daly City-Colma Lions Club, for her essay, "Peace Is Attainable." To encourage young local writers to enter the Lions International Golden Anniversary $50,000 Peace Essay Contest, Daly City-Colma Lions awarded their own club essay award, in the 14-21 year-old age bracket living in the Daly City-Colma-Broadmoor area. Joe Mottola, president, hands award to Miss Wertenberg, who is now eligible to advance to the Lions District 4-C4 level of judging.

Washington P-TA Movie Today

The George Washington P-TA will show Walt Disney's "The Misadventures of Merlin Jones," at 1 p.m. today in the school's multi-use room. There will be popcorn, candy and orange drink sold during the performance. Admission will be 35 cents each.

The picture stars Annette Funicello, Tommy Kirk and Fred MacMurray.

Forgotten campaign posters hang forlornly around the TN campus as reminders of last week's class elections.

Senior officers for this semester, all of the female species, are Carol Alvarado, president, Bonnie Calverley, vice president; Donna Underwood, secretary; and Cheryl Williams, treasurer.

Juniors elected Randy Barnhart, president; Pat Higgins, vice president; Janice O'Connor, secretary; and Mike O'Connor, treasurer.

Sophomore leaders are president, Mark Boyden; vice president, Debbie Ernst; secretary, Debbie Patterson, and treasurer Charlotte Lowe.

Freshmen got into the swing of things with at least three candidates running for each office. Cindy Gonzales was re-elected president. Deanne Raawe is treasurer. Run-off elections will be held for vice president (Juanita Hayes-Carol Porter) and secretary (Ginger Alioto-Vicki Rainsford).

Four Jeff Singers Win Berths on Honor Choir

Jefferson's choir came into the spotlight this week with the announcement that five students — Marsha Mahaffie, Ellen Harper, Palma Williams, Oscar Orozco, and Charlene Clark — were selected to represent Jefferson in the Music Educators National Conference Honor Choir in Las Vegas.

The convention will beheld from March 19 to March 23.

The students were chosen on a panel of five judges who represent some of the leading choral conductors.

The tudents were chosen on a basis of qualifications and the rating of the chool music department for the past two years. Jefferson has placed in the number one group in the high school rating list.

The Y students will leave Jefferson March 17 chaperoned by Gil Crane and Miss Karen Fellom.

Upon arriving the students will work on a "buddy" system: A student from a local Las Vegas high school will take in a choir member for the weekend.

The choir will be under the direction of Howard Swan who is the leading authority in choral direction in the United States. The students will rehearse six hours a day for three days and will present a recital at the close of the convention.

There will be 500 voices in the choir, representing six states, including Hawaii.

This is the first time any students from Jefferson have been nominated to be members of the honor choir.

Plans For 'Y' Fashion Show Made

Cherry Pie And Sales

Louanne Heath

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY — Cherry pie and fabulous sale time!

Spring is more than a promise now because of the dashes of color in the beds of bulbs and on the once-bare branches. It's the time of year when ladies are as much interested in the colors mentioned in the fashion columns as they are with the color in Johnny or Jane's cheeks and the thickness (or thinness) of that layer of federal green lining the inside of their wallet.

The members of the Federated Women's Club of Pacifica have come up with a delightful idea to provide a glimpse of all that is new in spring attire and, at he same time, give an opportunity to some lucky lady to win the where-with-all with which to indulge herself in a good, old-fashioned shopping spree. The occasion will be the Young at Heart fashion show and dessert scheduled for this Sunday afternoon between 2 and 4 p.m. in Terra Nova High School.

MRS. EVA MORTON, who is publicity chairman as well as the vice president and program chairman, reports that the clothes to be modeled are "scrumptious" confections from the collection at Ross Department store. Mrs. Ann Elliott, a club member and chairman of the fashion show, is the buyer for the store and she has been gathering together the most intriguing items from the selection of stock for the afternoon.

Mrs. Laura Leach, a San Mateo lass, who made a hobby of collecting old-fashioned clothes, will provide a special treat for the guests when she and the show models present the styles of another era. Wearing the gowns from Mrs. Leach's collection, as well as modeling the dresses for the spring how will be Mrs. Anita Macario, Mrs. Juanita Lester, Mrs. Diane Hart, Mrs. Anita Karczewski, Mrs. Susan Koche, Mrs. Roberta Lundy, Mrs. Jo Ann Fuller, Mrs. Wilma Burton, Mrs. Opal Cline, Mrs. Claire Rawlings, Mrs. Alice Uriarte and Mrs. Eva Morton.

Karen Hamilton, Maria Bracamonte, Pam Pappas, Lillian Wereda, Marty Miller and Sharon Slusarz, all from Oceana High School, and Tracy Clodfelter, Debbie Ernst, Kathy Hager, Linda Telly, Donna Van Sickle and Betty Wiswell, students from Terra Nova, will be serving the refreshments.

Tickets will be sold for $2.50 each by all the members of the club or they may be purchased at the door on Sunday. Everyone making a donation of $1 or more is eligible to receive the money tree, bearing 100 $1 bills, which will be given away during the afternoon, Mrs. Morton said.

LADY ON THE ROCKS, a drama concerned with the impact of alcoholism will be presented at the Westview School in Pacifica next Wednesday beginning at 8 p.m., according to Mrs. Shirley Drye, publicity chairman for the Community Cultural Coordinating Committee, one of the spoonsoring groups.

The play is one of the Family Service Agency sponsored Plays for Living series, and is open to the public free of charge.

According to Mrs. Drye, the Pacifica chapter of the Amreican Association of University Women, and the CCCC will serve refreshments at 7:30 p.m., prior to the opening curtain, and be on hand following the drama to conduct an open-end discussion of the situation and services offered by distressed families by the agencies in San Mateo County.

Soloists Frank Benjamin, Adela Samora, Samuel Silverman and Marge Somdahl will highlight tomorrow night's Founder's Day program at the Vista Grande School in Daly City, according to program announcement by Mrs. Ann PETERS of the Daly City Community Chorus.

The chorus will be preforming for its second founder's day program in as many weeks, last Thursday they sang for the Vista Mar, P-TA, and for tomorrow evening are preparing a group of selections which will include Gay Ninety's Fantasy, Madam Jeanette More and Carnoval of Melody. Mrs. Janet Holden, the accompanist and the singing coach for the soloists, has been putting in a considerable amount of overtme to make sure everyone is in top form for the Vista Grande appearance at 7:45 tomorrow.

Rita Lederer was "Queen for a Night" at the surprise party held in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Nethery, and hosted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lederer of Daly City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Leonard, Mrs. Vernita Sheley, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Nethery and Marice Kiep and his mother, Mrs. Ruth Kiep, were on hand for the beauty contest and the crowning of Queen Rita. Instead of birthday presents to be opened ,the newly crowned member of royalty received prizes! All a clever bit of party staging worked out by Leonard and his wife, Marilyn.

THE NEW PAINTINGS on display in the Mental Health Center in Westlake are the work of Bay Area painter Edith Goldenberg and are all being offered for sale to benefit the Mental Health Center according to a bit of informaiton from Mrs. Roy Tierney.

The oils are all marked with their prices and anyone interested in purchasing one may obtain more information and make the sale arrangements with the center's receptionist. Mrs. Joyce Frasu, the volunteer art instructor for the center, is now chairman of the exhibits and anyone interested in hanging their works in the center should contact her ar Pl 5-5354 for more information and to make booking arrangements.

The call is out for clerical help at the facility and prospective volunteers are asked to call Toni Palladino, 589-5222, extension 280, for information.

March 8, 9, 10 and 11 are the dates for the American Cancer Society's educational exhibit and program in the Westlake Mall as the local unit prepares to swing into its annual fund-raising drive, set for April.

Mrs. Ernestine Tierney, Mrs. Doloris Leonard, Mrs. Eleanor Giusts and Mrs. James O'Campo, the four co-city chairmen for the crusade, are on the lookout for block walkers, volunteer drivers and office help and anyone interested in helping should call Pl 5-2961, Pl 6-4189, Wy 2-0628 or Pl 6-9209.

ADELA ZAMORA prepares for a performance as one of the soloists at the Vista Grande P-TA Founders Day program Thursday evening. The D. C. Community Chorus will provide the entertainment for the annual program, set to ge underway 7:45 p.m. p.m.

Community, Actors Both Have Roles in Theater, Spindrift Players Told

"The obligation of a community theater is to entertain its audiences, and the obligation of the community is to go to its shows and be entertained."

This mutual agreement spells success to a non-professional theater group, declared Jerry Markel, an Interplayers actor and scene designer, at last Wednesday's dinner meeting of The Spindrift Playhouse, Pacifica.

Markel a Daly City resident and design engineer by profession, said that while theatre has been constantly relegated to oblivion during the past four thousand years, it lives more than ever today in small groups serving their communities.

"Live theater is the presentation of a worthwhile play by real, live, breathing people to a real live audience. There is a communication that cannot be duplicated in television, radio, or movies," he said.

"A community theater needs a nucleus of strong, theater-minded people who persist in spite of others in their group who come merely to be entertained and 'have fun.' These people weaken a theater group and must be controlled."

Markel emphasized that a director is a a dictator, so that he can take responsibility for a production.

"If you asked a group of 30 for ideas, you would get 30 different ideas. That is just not the way a successful theater group operates."

The speaker told how a community theater organization can be built without sponsorship by a city.

He said "little theater groups that are subsidized by a city recreation department tend to go wild and produce plays that are not as good as those done by an independent group."

Referring to audience reaction, he commented, "People will support something that is good. It takes a few years, but if you give them something worthwhile in which they can participate in the emotion projected from the stage, the public will help you.

"A play does not exist until there is an audience to enjoy it."

Markel's talk was followed by a comedy lecture of "The Harmfulness of Tobacco," by Anton Chekhov. This was done by Gilbert West, who plays a leading role in the Spindrift Playhouse's upcoming production, "Invitation to a March."

West's makeup was done by Sharon Hollander, also in the "Invitation" cast. Nathaniel Marks, president of the Playhouse, served as master of ceremonies.

Information about The Spindrift Playhouse may be had by phoning 355-3565.

Friends of D.C. Library to Hear Review of Book

David Crane will be the book reviewer for the Friends of the Daly City Library at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Coral Room of the Westlake Library.

Crane is Daly City's reference librarian, and is also in charge of circulation and inter-library loans.

He obtained his B.A. in English Literature at San Francisco State College, and is currently working for his Master's Degree at San Jose State College.

Crane will discuss the works of the popular young author, Kurt Vonnegut Jr., among which are Cat's Cradle, God Bless You, Mr. Rosewater, and Mother Night.

Vonnegut, a clever satirist, has written for television and magazines and is considered by many critics to be one of the brightest hopes for the future of fiction.

Preceding the program, the Friends of the Daly City Library will observe its 11th birthday during the coffee hour. The public is invited.

Mrs. F. Lincoln Walter, president, has announced the appointment of Mrs. William Roay as the group book review chairman.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By Donald C. Waite

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF DECORATING, TOO

Your home will be more excitingly decorated if you add variety to it, and if you concentrate on avoiding monotony in your furnishings.

But, how do you go about doing this?

It can be done even if you use the same furniture period throughout your home. For instance, you can still vary the wood finishes and color schemes sufficiently to avoid monotony. And, there are many other things to look for when you go furniture shopping.

A striped pattern on a chair or sofa will often be a charming change from the usual solid or floral fabrics. Look for a certain piece of furniture that can be a center of interest for your living room.

You can even do things to your windows that will add variety to your home. Here's one idea: Use of double traverse rods with two sets of drapes can be a good plan with one set of the light, transparent type allowing light into the room while the other set is opaque giving complete privacy.

When you come into our store we can show you many pieces of furniture which can make a wonderful addition to your rooms and give you the variety and the sparkle and the attractive decorator touch which many homes lack. Come in and look around.

Our decorators, here at Sterling Furniture in Westlake Shopping Center, are at your service no matter what your decorating problem may be. We are open Wednesday and Friday evenings 'til 9 p.m. for your shopping convenience or call PL 6-7500.

North County Vocalists To Sing at Fair

North County's up-and-coming vocal group, Patti Parks and The Entertainers, have been invited to share top billing this year at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, scheduled to run from July 31 through August 12.

The group's first appearance last summer, was on the lead-up to the appearance of the Lennon Sisters, and was considered by fair entertainment coordinator, Emily McAdams, worthy of renewal. According to the letter received by Patti Parks (Stolz), leader of the group, "A 40-minute show, at top day and hour has been reserved for The Entertainers."

All residents of North County, the vocal group has been seen at The Edwater Inn, Press Club Canterbury Hotel, in concert and on local TV.

In addition to modern vocal ensembles, each member of the troupe presents his own special "act with an act" — making their material fresh and new at each appearance.

Included in The Entertainers are: Betty Elliott, Marlene Hansen and Patti Parks Stolz; and male vocalists, Walter Jeter Jr. and Paul Brinley (of Pacifica). Accompaniment for the fair appearance will be by the Al Maffei Trio, of Burlingame.

Women Of Bethel Set WMC Day

Members of the Women's Missionary Council and its auxiliary, Missionettes, of Bethel Church of Pacifica, 1666 Higgins Way, will join several thousand other groups of Assemblies of God women in observing the 16th annual National WMC Day, February 26.

The service will begin at 11 a.m. on Sunday morning, according to Rev. Lee Warford, pastor. Participants will include the WMC's Young Women's Missionary Council memberas (girls aged 16-24), and Missionettes (girls 9-15).

Program for the annual recognition of the ministry of women in the church has been titled, "Yes Lord." The two words will emphasize the value of a life dedicated to the will of God and His service, according to Pastor Warford.

The local women's groups are part of the national organization of Assemblies of God Women's Missionary Council, with headquarters in Springfield, Mo. Local groups of 50 districts help provide for more than 2,000 members of Assemblies of God home and foreign missionary families. Combined WMC and Missionaries giving for world missions has exceeded a million dollars a year for nine consecutive years.

Officers of the local WMC organization directing plans for the February 26 service include Mrs. Helen Amrine, president; Mrs. Karola Searcy, vice president; Mrs. Pat Hotlen, secretary; and Mrs. Betty Brown, treasurer.

The WMC's will also be introducng their newly formed YWMC (Young Women's Missionary Council) group.

Warehouse Plan in S.S.F.

Simplicity Patterns, Inc., of San Francisco will build a new $125,000 warehouse and office building in South San Francisco, the city's building department reported this week.

The 23,910 square foot facility will be located at 435 Forbes Boulevard, in the city's industrial park district. Contractor on the building is Aberthaw Construction Company of South San Francisco.

Other building permits issued this week include one to Richard Harnett, $4,000, fire damage repairs to a dwelling at 213 Rainer Avenue; John F. Beekman, $4,000, addition to a dwelling at 12 Felton Avenue;

M. R. Malanca, $16,500, construction of a dwelling at 815 Camaritas Avenue; A. DeAlba, $1,500, alterations to a warehouse at 74 Linden Avenue; N. Moorehouse, $150, addition to a dwelling at 2201 Delvin Way, and H. MacBird, $6,000, addition to a dwelling at 308 Arroyo Drive.

Bid Accepted For Addition To City Hall

San Bruno councilmen awarded a contract for the planned city hall addition to the Cortelyou and Cole Company of Mountain View last Tuesday.

The firm's bid of $370,900 was the lowest of eight entered, and was considerably below the city architect's estimate of $433,000 for the project.

The next lowest bid, at $379,000, was from the E. R. Griffin Company of Los Altos, and Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco entered the third lowest bid, $399,000.

The city's acceptance of the bid is subject to approval by the federal government. The government is sharing the cost of the annex, which will include civil defense facilities.

Degree For Professor Is Asked

San Francisco State College Assistant Professor of Secondary Education F. George Elliott of Daly City has completed all requirements and been recommended to receive the Doctor of Education degree. The Ed.D. will be officially conferred by the University of California in Los Angeles on March 18.

Elliott joined the faculty at San Francisco State in February of last year. Previously he was an administrator at UCLA and taught in British Columbia and for the Canadian Department of National Defense in Paris, France and Baden, Germany.

He studied at Victoria (B.C.) College and received his Bachelor's degree and credential from the University of British Columbia in 1949 and Master's from Long Beach State College in 1961.

Elliott, 40, is single and lives at 55 Poincettia drive.

D.C. Man Picked For Appeals Unit

Presiding Judge Howard Hartley today drew by lot the names of the first three members of the newly formed Tax Assessment Appeals Board which will take over functions of the Board of Equalization.

They are: Perry Bygdnes of Redwood City appointed to a three-year term; A. J. Gaggero of Daly City appointed to a two-year term; and William P. Feeney of Pacifica appointed to a one-year term.

Their terms start June 5 and the Appeals Board is expected to underake equalization hearings sometime after that date.

State legislation creating the board requires that members have a minin.um of five years of experience as public accountant, real estate broker, attorney, or property appraiser, or "is a person who the nominating member of the Board of Supervisors has reason to believe is possessed of competent knowledge of property appraisal and taxation."

Supervisors sought the legislation last year as appeals resulting from the countywide reassessment program grew in number with many of the questions involved being highly technical in nature.

The board hopes such a board of specialists in the field will provide more equitable equalization of assessments, County Manager E. R. Stallings said.

Fire Leaves Place in Ruins

Industry Takes Steps To Meet Emergency

Fairchild News Service®

CHICAGO. — A catastrophic fire Monday morning left a major portion of the housewares industry without a marketplace.

The fire came hours before the major industry show was to open. Many exhibitors depend on the show to bring in orders on which they anticipate production for the next half year.

The housewares industry, stunned by losses running into the millions, was looking to the future with glazed eyes.

The fire at McCormick Place will leave buyers without their new items and show specials and at a loss as to how they could develop their spring plans.

Engineers' Week Slated In Daly City

Daly City Mayor Bernard "Bud Lycett" has proclaimed the week of Washington's Birthday (February 19-25) as "Engineer's Week" in the city.

The proclamation issued last week, reads:

Whereas, the abilities and efforts of the professional engineers are vital to the security, prosperity, comfort, and general welfare of the citizens of the United States; and

Whereas, our engineers are engaged in such widely diversified fields as agriculture, communications, electricty, electronics, metallurgy, mining, sanitation, space research, transportation and other areas, and in the management of these activities, and

Whereas, the creative opportunities in these many fields of engineering are increasing, and there must be a continuing supply of young engineering and scientific manpower of high caliber to furnish the required skills ;and

Whereas, the many contributions of our engineers to major technological achievements and cultural changes are vital to our way of life, and the opportunities available to young people in the engineering profession should be recognized;

Now, Therefore, I, Bernard J Lycett, Mayor of the City o Daly City do proclaim the week of Washington's Birthday, February 19-25, 1967, as "Engineers' Week," in honor of the engineering profession and in recognition of its achievements.

Yellow Cab Moves Office To Daly City

The Yellow Cab Company of San Francisco last week moved their dispatch offices back to Daly City in order to comply with a new ordinance requiring taxicab firms to provide offices in areas of operation.

Although the new law allows 60 days for affected companies to conform, Yellow Cab moved back to their Mission Street address more than a week prior to adoption of the ordinance.

The company, sole operator of taxicabs within the city, closed their offices last year as an economy measure.

A city councilman said the new law was passed "in order to provide better service, through closer controls, for residents of Daly City."

Homeowners Want More Protection

South San Francisco Councilmen will hear a request from Westpark homeowners for greater fire protection in the 125-home development at Monday night's meeting.

J. Hoffman, president of the Westpark Homeowner's Association, said many rsidents of the area are "seriously concerned that no nearby fire protection facilities are available, and the nearest station is approximately three miles away."

The homeowners will suggest that the council attempt to obtain an agreement with Daly City to have the nearby Serramonte Fire Station serve Westpark, Hoffman said.

New Cemetery For Parks Is Requested

Congressman J. Arthur Younger was addressed a letter to Stanley R. Resor, Secretary of the Army, requesting that Golden Gate Cemetery not be enlarged and that funds available for this purpose be diverted to construction of a new cemetery in the Camp Parks Area, where the government owns hundreds of acres of unused land.

"It has long been established that the government would not increase the size of Golden Gate Cemetery and to do so now would only increase the problem of a highly congested area," Younger said.

He pointed out that land near Golden Gate has recently been sold for as high as $57,000 an acre which would make the approximate $125,000 appropriated for expansion virtually worthless as it would buy about 2½ acres.

Younger said that all veterans' organizations in San Mateo County are on record with him opposing expansion of Golden Gate and it is opposed by San Bruno city officials and the County of San Mateo.

Sermon Topic Is Revealed

"A 2500 Year Televised Preview of Twentieth Century A.D. Education and Travel" will be Walter Stram's 11 a.m. message, Sunday, February 26, at the Peninsula Church of Christ (Christian), meeting in Olivet Chapel, Hillsdale Boulevard and "F" Street, Colma.

At 9:45 a.m. Bible School hour the adult class continues its study of the Book of Genesis, while youth and children are in their classes.

Mary's Help Guild Plans Fuchsia Ball

Mrs. Frank Kelechava, president of Mary's Help Hospital Guild, has announced that the guild will sponsor a "Day at the Races" at Golden Gate Fields, March 15.

The afternoon will be the kick-off event for the guild's annual Fuchsia Ball to be held in May. Ball chairman, Mrs. William Corbett, has appointed Mrs. Frank Lawson to be chairman of the affair.

Tickets are priced at $7.50 each and include Turf Club admission, terrace buffet lucnheon and option of chartered bus transportation from Westlake or free parking at the Turf Club entrance. Tickets and information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lawson at 755-2116 or Mrs. William Corbett at 585-7616.

Proceeds of this event benefit the purchase of advanced equipment for Mary's Help Hospital.

Drama On Alcoholism In Pacifica

The misconception that alcoholism is willful behavior and ought to be subject to individual control, is the target of the Plays for the Living drama "Lady on the Rocks," sponsored by the County Family Service Agency to be presented in Pacifica at the Westview School, March 1, at 7:30 p.m.

Local sponsoring groups are the Pacifica Association of American University Women and the Community Cultural Co-ordinating Committee. The half-hour drama will commence at 8 p.m. followed by a half-hour audience discussion period under the guidance of an expert.

The drama was writen by playwright Elizabeth Blake and the cast is made up of skilled professionals. The performance is free and the public is welcome.

"Lady on the Rocks," was commissioned by the National Council on Alcoholism to develop individual recognition and understanding and to dramatize the fact that alcoholism is not solely a legal or moral matter.

THE ORTEGA ELEMENTARY P-TA in Pacifica will sponsor its annual tree and shrub sale at the Ortega School Saturday and Sunday. A variety of trees and shrubs will be offered. Here, Jim Bunton has the chore of planting one he got at last year's second annual sale. His wife, Dolores, is trying to help im figure out where to put it. (Post Photo)

Redeemer's Hi-League Sets Feed

Our Redeemer's Church Hi League youth group will hold a spaghetti supper at the church, El Camino Real at Southwood Drive, February 26.

Jim Stevens, president, and workers Gay Lee Gulbrandson, Todd Gibson, and Darlene Rohm have met with parent-advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Johnson and intern-pastor Larry Nelson, to arrange for the supper event.

Food will include spaghetti, meat sauce, French bread, drink and cakes and will be home-made by the members of the church. Served piping-hot between the hours of 4-7 p.m. on Sunday evening.

Friends in the community are invited to come, and the donations will benefit the youth activities of the local parish.

Activities such as summer camp, youth conference, to be held in Seattle, Washington, during August, and leadership training conference for youth held annually during the summer months.

MUSHROOM SAUCE

If you are using prepared cream of mushroom soup as a sauce for green vegetables, omit salt when you cook the vegetable.

Snow Trip Is Slated

The Christ Ambassadors of Bethel Church of Pacifica will take a snow trip Saturday.

On Friday night, the young ladies will meet at Miss Peni Ambrosen's house for a pajama party and the young men will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berry.

They will start the next day for the snow.

SWEETEN DRIED FRUIT

If you like to sweeten cooked dried fruit, add the sugar about five minutes before the fruit has finished cooking or immediately after the cooking process.

FRUIT SALAD

Cubed oranges and cut-up prunes make an excellent addition to a tossed green salad that is to be served with ham.

A 'Mystery Trip'

San Bruno Lions' Club at their meeting Monday at the Lazy "V" in San Bruno had as its guests members from the Stanford Club.

A mystry trip is planned for Saturday.

"Ladies Night" has been scheduled for March 16 at the Bunker Room at Cypress Hills Golf course, in South San Francisco, with boned chicken as the entree. The time is 7 p.m. for cocktails and dinner at 8.

A dinner dance is being planned for April 29, with an Italian dinner with all the trimmings at the South San Francisco

Jefferson Menu

February 23 — Macaroni and beef bake, buttered peas, fresh fruit and hot bread.

February 24 — Sloppy Joe on bun, combination salad, fruit, and frosted cake.

February 27 — Hot dog on bun, buttered vegetable, and baked surprise.

February 28 — Baked chicken, whipped potato, buttered green beans, and fruit jello.

March 1 — Meat balls with gravy, potato salad buttered peas, and ice cream.

Women Set Fashion Show Plans

A Mexican luncheon, hosted by Mrs. Glen Boyd, and attended by members of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mother's Club of Daly City, was one of several fund-raising events that kicked-off the club's plans for their annual fashion show and luncheon to be held in April.

Proceeds from the luncheon will go toward fashon show expenses.

The luncheon, held at Mrs. Boyd's Fairmont home, featured homemade Mexican foods and included a comic fashion show with models attired in various humorous costumes.

The club's annual Fashion Show, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Martin Krenn Jr., will be held on April 22, at noon at the Hilton Inn, International Airport.

The theme of this year's show is "Oriental Fantasy" (with a Japanese flavor) and the fashions are from Celestine's House of Styles.

Tickets for the show are $5 per person and reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Theodore Reed at 359 Willits Street, Daly City.

HAT SALE

An Easter hat sale will be held by the Church of the Visitacion mothers' club, Sunday from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the parish hall, 775 Sunnydale Avenue, San Francisco.

Rummage Sale to Benefit Church School Classes

Mrs. David Pierce, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Wesley Methodist Church, announces that the proceeds of their annual rummage sale to be held at 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25 at the newly completed church, 1474 Southgate Avenue, Daly City, will benefit the Sunday school education program.

New and used items will be available of interest to everyone. Including childrens and adults clothing, shoes, notions, furniture and books, plus many other unusual items.

Chairman is Mrs. James Kelly of Pacifica and co-chairman of the sale is Mrs. William McGalughlin.

Refreshments will be handled by Mrs. James Booher of Pacifica; posters by Mr. and Mrs. Don Gibbons, publicity, by Mrs. Dee McGuigan, Mrs. Jeffrey Bell, and Mrs. Louis Guisti, pick-up, by Mrs. Ralf Reid, Mrs. W. Sowers and Mrs. David Pierce.

CORN 'N' BACON

What to serve for lunch? Heat canned creamstyle corn and serve generous portions of the vegetable topped with crisp-cooked bacon; pass hot biscuits (the prepared refrigerator kind) and butter.

HOW MUCH?

When a recipe calls for a cup of cooked prunes, you'll need to cook ¼ pound of the dried fruit.

RIPE OLIVE ADDITION

Slivers of ripe olives make a delightful addition to corn, whole-kernel or creamed style.

Pacifica Rainbow Girls Install Worthy Advisor

Betty Wiswell, a senior Terra Nova High School student, was installed as worthy advisor of the Bel Mar Assembly 177 Order of Rainbow for Girls, February 4.

Daughter of the Jayson Wiswells of Pacifica, Miss Wiswell was seated during thirty-second installation rites at the Coastside Masonic Temple.

"Love and Friendship" was Miss Wiswell's theme.

Installing officers were, Jeanne Miller, worthy advisor; Janice Scroggie, Charity; Jacie Williams, Hope; Laura Curran, Faith; Bonnie Callverley, Recorder; Claudia Walters, Treasurer.

Mother advisor is Mrs. Faye Chesson.

Chamber's Open House Welcomes City Manager

Over 50 business and professional men stopped by the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce office to meet and have coffee and pastries with the new Pacifica city manager, C. W. "Bill" Masonheimer, February 13.

Members of the board of directors of the chamber, its manager, Bernard Lake, Mayor Harland Minsher and city councilmen were on hand to greet the guests and introduce them to Masonheimer.

The gathering afforded the opportunity to meet with our new city manager on an informal basis and also gave him the opportunity to meet and talk with local businessmen.

Mrs. Joan Ellison, chamber secretary, assisted with the serving of coffee and pastries.

Now He's Tailoring

Will Thomas

Barry Langberg, a former Daly City police officer and presently a law student, has opened his own business — Barry's Tailoring — on Southgate Avenue, in Westlake.

A Westlake resident for 15 years, Barry is putting to work the knowledge he gained from his Father's 45 years of experience.

His father owns a custom tailoring shop in Oakland.

Barry was graduated from Westmoor High and the University of San Francisco, where he now is studying law.

Tailoring may or may not be as challenging as either law enforcement or being an attorney, but it has its moments, Barry thinks.

It's not a well-known business, custom tailoring, but "people have to be educated that clothes will fit so much better and are offered a much wider selection."

How much of a selection? His shop will carry 700 to 1000 pieces of material for selection.

"It can be a real challenge helping customers select the fabric and style that is best for them," he says.

WITH THE Pacifica Chamber of Commerce's annual "Miss Pacifica" pageant in the recruitment stages (Pacifica beauties, sign up now for the competition!), the scholarship offering involved has received the blessing of Pacifica high school principals, Drs. Harold Tonini of Terra Nova and Robert Watt of Oceana.

"Anytime there is a scholarship to encourage students to continue their education, we are happy," Tonini said.

"I feel confident this award will attract the highest caliber of girl, reflecting intelligence, poise, beauty and charm," he added.

DR. WATT, noting the contest thus gives "her (the winner) the opportunity to further her education," observed that "with the requirements of graduation and age, together with the emphasis placed on academic performance, I feel that those young ladies wishing to further their education should give the Miss Pacifica pageant their very serious consideration."

The winner will receive a $500 scholarship.

FAIRMONT, another up-and-coming Henry Doelger enterprise, will observe the opening of the Golden Coach restaurant and the Bank of America branch with drawings on March 15 and 17. Top award on the 17th will be a General Electric Color television console.

The bank will be opening February 27, with an open house-type function of its own as well, Doelger said.

Pacificans Arrested

Two young Pacifica men were arrested Thursday on charges of possession of marijuana and visiting a house where marijuana is used when police raided a residence on Monte Verde Avenue.

Larry McPherson, 18, was arrested on the possession charge, officers said, and another 18-year-old, Neil Sparks, was booked on the other charge.

Police raided the house at 89 Monte Verde about noon Thursday after receiving a tip that a large amount of marijuana was on the premises.

A search of the premises produced several matchboxes and a cake pan filled with marijuana seeds.

The house is rented in McPherson's name.

Frantic Hunt for Missing SSF Child, Found Asleep in Closet

More than 150 persons participated in a frantic city-wide search for a missing five-year-old South San Francisco child last Friday.

Distraught parents of Janae Marie Shareve, of 2981 Dublin Street, called police at 9 p.m. when efforts of neighbors failed to locate the child.

The parents told police little Janae normally came home from Monte Verde School in San Bruno around 3 p.m. everyday.

A search of the home by parents had failed to turn up the child and as the hours passed, the parents grew more concerned.

Shortly after the alarm was received at police headquarters, officers were formed into search teams. Firemen and lighting equipment were rushed to the neighborhood to aid large groups of Boy Scouts and other teen-agers in an inch-by-inch search of the area.

Neighbors gave up a night's sleep to join in the hunt and the child's path from school to home was traced a hundred times "by at least a hundred different people," according to police.

As police were guided through the home at 4 a.m. this morning by Janae's parents in hopes of finding some clue to the mysterious disappearance a small head popped out of the closet in one of the bedrooms.

A sleepy-eyed Janae tried to explain to her bewildered parents how she managed to hide in the closet after coming home late from school "and fell asleep."

"It's her favorite hiding place and it was the very first place we looked for her when she didn't come home for supper," the happy (but somewhat embarrassed) parents explained to the gathered search teams. Apparently, the parents overlooked her in the search.

B of A Plans New Branch In San Bruno

Bank of America will establish its second branch in San Bruno in the near future, C. A. Ehmann Jr. announced today.

The vice president and manager of the bank's San Bruno branch said the new office will be located on El Camino Real near San Bruno Avenue. "The bank is establishing the branch in temporary quarters in order to be on hand to serve the growing banking needs of the community," Ehmann said.

"Later, the office will be relocated to permanent quarters as the area develops." To be known as the El Camino-San Bruno branch, the new office is scheduled for completion in April. Bank of America is leasing the site from D. G. Piedemonte.

Bandit Robs Bruno Store

A knife-wielding robber held up the Purity Foods store in San Bruno last Friday and escaped with an undisclosed amount of money after threatening to slit the throats of two employees "if you make one false more."

Armed with a long knife and metal bar, the robber jumped his first victim, Jacinto B. Contreras, outside the store while the employee was dumping trash into a refuse container shortly after 10 p.m.

Forcing Contreras back into the store, the robber tied him securely before going to an upstairs office where he found David M. Clima counting the day's receipts.

"Do you feel like being a hero?" the man asked his victims. "Don't try and run for the door."

Stuffing the money into his pockets, the robber made one final remark before fleeing through the store's rear door: "Just think . . . you'll be in the papers tomorrow!"

BILL MASONHEIMER, Pacifica's new city manager, looks over paperwork with secretary Mary Cantino. Masonheimer is "getting his feet on the ground" and preparing to confront a myriad of problems in his new job, Mayor Harland Minshew said this week. Among the first items for consideration by the new manager is the acquisition of a site for the city's proposed new civic center.

First-Grade Children Face Bus Switch

Kindergarten and first-grade children now attending Woodrow Wilson School in Daly City soon may be bused to the Fernando River School if a bid for reconstruction of the outdated school is awarded by the board at today's regular meeting.

The children represent the last group remaining in the old Woodrow Wilson School building.

District Supt. Frank Greenwood said the move was necessary to protect the children during demolition of the old buildings and construction of the new, enlarged school on Miriam Street.

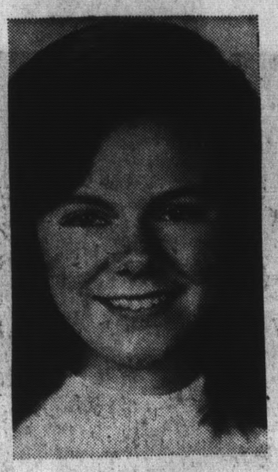
In a letter to parents of children at Woodrow Wilson, Greenwood said, "Classes will stay as they are now and their teachers will move with them, so the children will have the same classmates and teachers."

He sid the Fernndo Rivera School was selected for the remainder of the school year because it was the only school in the area with sufficient space for all the classes involved in the shift.

"If, for any reason, it is not possible for the board to award the construction contrct s planned, it will not be necessary to move the children," Greenwood said.

The children will start attending classes at the Fernando Rivera School on February 27.

"Bus transportation will be provided for all the children, and extra bus stops will be provided in the Woodrow Wilson area to accommodate them," Greenwood said.



LINDA SPARKS

VICKI EKSTEIN

Handicapped Collection Drive Starts

"All the glitters brings in gold" is the theme of the collection drive members of Macy's Hi Set will stage for the California League for the Handicapped.

Vicki Ekstein of 302 Saipan Road and Linda Sparks of 1104 Southgate have been named chairman of the Daly City area.

When the Hi Set learned the league needed more merchandise for its "Spring Fling" bazaar, they offered to make daily collections of jewelry and other bright items while the affair was in progress. Proceeds from the bazaar, to be held at 1021 Market Street in San Francisco, from February 20 to 24, will be used to expand Little Theatre activities the league provides for blind teen-agers throughout the Bay Area.

The Hi Setters, who interpret teen-fashions for the store, are chosen from every public and parochial high school for scholastic ability, personality and looks.

ROOF RAISERS

The Roof Raisers Junior Teen Club, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department, will have a dance Friday night, February 24, from 7 to 9 p.m. at F. D. Roosevelt School.

Cost to members is 25 cents, guests 50 cents.

MISS PACIFICA PAGEANT

Deadline Approaching For Beauty Entrants

All entries in the upcoming Miss Pacifica Pageant must have their application on file by 5 p.m., February 24 with Mrs. Soarl Ellison, entries chairman at the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce office, at 80 Eureka Square.

Applications are available before the deadline by calling the chairman at 355-4122.

The Miss Pacifica Pageant for 1967 looks as if it will be the finest yet. There are over $2,250 of scholarships available to the entries together with hundreds of dollars worth of prizes and awards.

Mrs. Grace McCarthy, prizes and awards chairman, states that there is much enthusiasm for the pagenat and many individuals and businesses have already voluntarily donated awards without solicitation.

Stan vanderHule, executive director, is anticipating quite a turn out of entries to compete for the highest honor our City can confer on any girl, the Crown of Miss Pacifica —the first step towards Miss California and Miss America.

The pageant is negotiating for preliminary franchise with the Miss California-Miss America pageants and will, in 1967, enter our queen in an official Miss America preliminary.

The entry committee has scheduled rehearsals beginning March 2 for 11 consecutive weeks to prepare the entrants for the pageant program.

Entries will be assisted in poise and posture, make-up, hair-styling techniques and talent preparation (assistance in chosing the talent best suited to each girl).

Assisting Mrs. Ellison on the committee will be Mrs. Theresa Roberts (Theresa Foley—Miss Pacifica 1964) and Mrs. Irma vanderHule.

Coast Permits Total $52,320

Stolen Car Catches Fire

An automobile stolen from the carport of a Mastick Avenue residence in San Bruno Thursday night was found stripped of its tires and burning on the Junipero Serra Freeway construction site Friday, police reported.

Officers said the car, a 1967 model Chevrolet, was stolen from Benjamin Hammond, 564 Mastick, while the owner was away from home.

Police said the car was spotted burning a few hundred feet south of San Bruno Avenue on the freeway site about 5 a.m. Hammond reported it stolen a few hours later.

Officers said the tires, wheels and battery had been removed, and theorized the car caught fire while it was being stripped.

Bay Road (On Paper) Would Dissect Coyote

By DENIS BLUNDEN

Plans of the new Association of Bay Area Governments' staff show a new Bayfront freeway that appears to cut right through the middle of Coyote Point in San Mateo.

The new freeway is part of the preliminary regional plan for the Bay Area which is now under discussion by ABAG. All the aspects of the ABAG plans were explained by various county officials last week at a meeting of the County Regional Planning Committee at San Mateo City Hall.

Lars Anderson, of the County Planning Department, reporting on the Bay Shoreline Plan, said he had peered very closely at a color picture of this plan showing a proposed Bayfront Freeway and come up with the following route:

A super-freeway across the water, east of the present Bayshore Freeway, from Candlestick to Sierra Point. There is no indication whether it would be a bridge-type construction, or be built on fill.

The super-freeway (high speeds, few interchanges) would continue through South San Francisco to the airport, passing through the Cabot, Cabot & Forbes Industrial Park and on the twest side of International Airport near the original Bayshore Highway route. No filling is indicated until well past the airport and there is no provision for expansion of the airport.

Yacht Harbor Intact

At the airport, the superfreeway would become a standard freeway. Past the airport it would run along the shore at Millbrae and in Burlingame in the Bay approximately east of the drive-in theaters with fill indicated between the route and the present shore.

In San Mateo, the freeway appears to cut through Coyote Point, leaving just the yacht harbor intact. I would swing to the east on a route that would take it past the site of the old toll booths on the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge. Fill is indicated to this point. Then it would swing along the Foster City shoreline, cut across the tip of the flats south of Foster City and connect with the Dumbarton Bridge on the way to San Jose. The map shows the area immediately north of Dumbarton Bridge as "mineral production" — salt evaporators. Foster City and Redwood Shores are shown as residential. There is no provision for the proposed Pacifica Air Commerce Center south of the airport.

Blonde Toffee Brownies Calm 'Houseful of Wild Indians'

When you've got a houseful of wild Indians, you might need "reinforcements" to keep the natives from getting too restless. Put away your shootin' irons, mom. Don't call the cavalry! Suggest a raid on the cookie jar instead of the old homestead.

Good cooks and wise mothers know you just can't have enough cookie recipes in your collection — there's always room for a new and exciting one, and these "Blonde Toffee Brownies" will go right to the top of your list. The taste surprise here comes from a unique ingredient—candy bars.

Bits of chopped chocolate-covered English Toffee candy are folded into the batter to give these cookies a sweetness and crunchy texture that will appeal to everyone's taste, young and old. You'll find the candy bars a delight to work with . . . they are easily chopped into fine bits with a sharp knife or crushed with a rolling pin.

The Blonde Toffee Brownies are a rich, moist bar cookie that need no frosting or, if you have a real "sweet tooth" family, they can be frosted with your favorite white or chocolate butter frosting when cool and more bits of candy may be sprinkled on top.

BLONDE TOFFEE BROWNIES

1½ cups sifted flour
2 tsps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup granulated sugar
½ cup (packed) brown sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup crushed Heath chocolate-covered English Toffee bars

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream butter or margarine. Add both sugars and cream well. Add eggs and vanilla; beat until fluffy. Blend in dry ingredients. Stir in crushed candy. Spread over bottom of well-greased 13x9x2-inch baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 30 minutes. When cool, cut into bars 3-inches long and 1-inch wide. If desired, bars may be frosted when cool with a white or chocolate butter frosting, before cutting. Sprinkle more candy bits on top. Yield: About 3 dozen bars.

Tantalizing Dishes Due When Cooks Stretch Food

It's absolutely true . . . many tantalizing dishes are developed by cooks who want to make a little chicken or turkey stretch.

CHICKEN TRIUMPH WITH CURRIED CHICKEN GRAVY

1½ cups finely chopped cooked chicken
1 can (10¾ ounces) chicken gravy
1 egg, slightly beaten
¼ cup minced celery
2 tablespoons minced onion
½ teaspoon curry powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ package (10-ounce size) pie crust mix
Melted butter
Sesame seeds (optional)
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Combine chicken, 2 tablespoons gravy, egg, celery, onion, ¼ teaspoon curry, and salt; mix well. Prepare pastry as directed on package; roll out into rectangle (10 x 7-inches). Place chicken mixture lengthwise down center of pastry; fold over two edges; turn in ends and seal. Place sealed edge down on cookie sheet. Cut slits in pastry; brush with butter; if desired, sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake at 425 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until browned. In saucepan, cook green pepper with remaining curry in butter until tender; add remaining gravy. Heat; serve with roll. Cut into 8 slices. Makes 4 servings.

This Savory Mold Should Please a Man

There are meals that demand a light salad, a dainty salad, a fruit salad, or mixture of greens and vinegar. But when your plans call for a meal to please a man, choose this savory tomato mold for your salad. You'll find it's especially good with roasts, steaks, or hamburger.

It's not a light salad, for it's made with cream cheese and mayonnaise. Rather, its rich in texture and savory with the flavor of bottled tomato juice and onion. For contrast, there are crisp bits of chopped celery and pickle.

Make it ahead of time in a decorative mold or in small individual molds for each salad. And always be sure it's sevred with the meat course.

You'll find that women like this tomato mold, but there's something about it that appeals particularly to men. Tell the man of the family that you made it especially for him, and he'll enjoy it all the more.

TOMATO CREAM MOLD

3 envelopes (3 tablespoons) unflavored gelatin
3 cups tomato juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
1 package (3 ounce) cream cheese, room temperature
1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
¾ cup finely chopped celery
1-3 cup finely chopped sweet or dill pickle
¼ to 1-3 cup finely chopped onion

Soften gelatin in 1 cup tomato juice; place over low heat; stir until gelatin melts. Stir in remaining 2 cups tomato juice, lemon juice, and salt. Chill until mixture begins to set. Beat cream cheese until smooth. Whip in salad dressing or mayonnaise until smooth. Add tomato mixture; blend well. Add celery, pickle and onion. Pour into an oiled 5-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp salad greens. Garnish with additional salad dressing or mayonnaise and sweet or dill pickle fans. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Winter Pear

Winter pears are picked when full-grown but still green to develop fine texture. So don't be discouraged if they are still firm. In 2 or 3 days pears will ripen at room temperature to produce a juicy smooth texture. They are ripe when flesh yields to gentle pressure of the fingers.

Hot Bean Dip, With Crackers

This zippy hot bean dip goes well with crunchy cheese crackers: In saucepan, combine 1 can (11¼ ounces) condensed bean with bacon soup, ¼ cup chili sauce, and 1 tablespoon chopped hot pepper; beat with rotary beater. Heat; stir often. Serve hot as dip with crackers. Makes about 1 1-3 cups dip.

Exciting Recipe Gets Around

Sometimes excitement about a new dessert recipe races from kitchen to kitchen across the country with hurricane speed.

When a dessert like this cherry pie filling-topped Ruby Ribbon specialty is created, it's bound to be talked about up and down every block.

Small wonder that news of its arrival on the dessert scene is causing a flurry . . . it's easy to make, and pretty and delicious as well.

This is one of those dessert recipes you can almost memorize — there are so few ingredients listed.

Of course, this makes it a natural to pass along to friends, but — more important — it is simple for you to prepare.

The dessert is a tri-layered treat made up of a chocolate-cookie crust, a fluff of butter and eggs, and canned cherry pie filling. The crust comes first, made with dark chocolate cookie crumbs and melted butter, mixed and pressed into a waxed paper-lined refrigerator tray.

The filling for the dssert is a velvety-smooth, rich blend of confectioners' sugar and butter beaten to a froth with two eggs. While this layer chills, you can reach for the luscious topping for the dessert — a can of sparkling, ruby-red cherry pie filling. It adds the color and flavor that make the dessert such a stand-out. But rather than reading about this Ribbon Dessert, why don't you hurry to your kitchen and try it? Everyone else is!

RUBY RIBBON DESSERT

2 cups chocolate cookie crumbs
1-3 cup melted butter
½ cup soft butter
1½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar
2 eggs
1 No. 2 can (2 cups) cherry pie filling

Combine crumbs and melted butter. Press firmly into a 9x4x3-inch refrigerator tray that has been lined with waxed paper. Cream soft butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time beating well after each addition, until mixture is very light. Spread over cookie crumbs. Chill 2 hours; spoon cherry pie filling over egg mixture and refrigerate several hours or overnight. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

BUTTERFLIES

Cut dough into 1 by 3-inch rectangles. Cut ½-inch strips. Squeeze rectangle in center. Circle with strip of dough. Place on cookie sheets with center strip ends tucked under. Bake according to recipe directions.

Bow-tie Macaroni Casserole Features Dairy Foods Trio

Macaroni casseroles high in dairy food proteins are the delight of good cooks everywhere, particularly when the budget needs a bit of stretching with, however, no stinting on nutrition, flavor or eye appeal. In this recipe for Bow Tie Macaroni Casserole, home economists for the Dairy Council of California chose bow tie shaped macaroni for its distinctive appearance. They then combined the "bow ties" with generous and flavorful amounts of a trio of dairy foods (cottage cheese, dairy sour cream and blue cheese), brown 'n serve sausages and the additional flavor enhancement of green onions, garlic and Worcestershire sauce. The results were enthusiastically hailed by neighborhood testers and their families as an easily prepared main dish for serving frequently. Recipe makes 6 to 8 servings . . . dependent on how many teenagers are present and dining.

1 package (12-ounces) bow tie shaped macaroni
1 cup (½ pint) small curd cottage cheese
1 cup (½ pint) dairy sour cream
3 tablespoons crumbled blue cheese
4 green onions, chopped (tops and all)
1 clove garlic, mashed or finely minced
1 teaspoon Worcestireshire sauce
1 pound of brown 'n serve link sausages

Cook bow ties in boiling salted water according to package directions until just tender . . . beware of overclooking. Drain thoroughly. Combine cottage cheese and dairy sour cream with crumbled blue cheese, onions, garlic and Worcestershire sauce. Slice all but six of the sausages into ½-inch rounds. Toss sausage rounds, bow ties and sauce together lightly. Place in butter 2½-quart casserole. Arrange remaining six sausages on top. Bake in moderate, 350 degree, oven 30 to 35 minutes or until well-heated and sausages are lightly browned. Garnish with parsley, green pepper strips or pimiento, as desired.

A New Treat In Custard Cake Recipe

Here's an excellent dessert suggested by home economists who have developed a delicious recipe for using up stale pound, yellow or white cake.

The left-over pieces of cake are baked in a rich custard and topped with sliced fruit. If your cake is frosted, don't forget to remove the icing before adding it to the custard.

CAKE 'N' CUSTARD

8 slices of stale cake, pound, yellow or white
1 cup sliced peaches, drained
3 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk, scalded and cooled
1 teaspoon vanilla

Line 9x9-inch pan with cake slices and arrange peaches on top.

Combine eggs, sugar, and salt. Slowly stir in milk and vanilla. Pour into cake liked pan. Place pan in another pan of hot water. Bake at 325 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes or until inserted knife comes out clean. Cool. Cut in squares.

Whip Up An Appetite With Saucy Eggs

Saucy Eggs in an extra nourishing lunch you can whip-up on these cool fall days. Saucy Eggs uses convenience daily products to provide needed enerty and protein for growing youngsters. Home economists suggest cooking the eggs in the morning so they will be ready to put into sauce at the last minute.

Shelling of the eggs will be much easier if you immerse the eggs into cold water immediately after cooking. This also helps to prevent a dark surface on yolks.

SAUCY EGGS

(Serves 6)

6 eggs, hard cooked
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup milk
½ cup dairy sour cream
2 teablespoons chopped chives or green onion
6 pattie shells or buttered toast

Quarter eggs. Heat soup and stir in milk, sour cream and chives. Add quartered eggs. Heat through. Spoon egg mixture into pattie shells or onto toast points.

New Dressing Accents Pears

Arrange fresh winter pears on crisp greens and top with this zesty dressing. Combine ½ cup each dairy sour cream, jellied cranberry sauce and mayonnaise with 2 tablespoons crumbled American blue cheese and 2 tablespoons chopped nuts. Chill thoroughly.

PERFECT FLOUNDER in a perfect sauce will bring smiles 'round your dinner table. Stuffed with pecan bits and rice, sauced with canned condensed cream of celery soup, and prepared with ease in a skillet, these flounder rollups are an appetite pleasing treat.

Flounder Rollups Appetizing Treat

When the calendar seems to be uncooperative, weather forecasts continue unpromising, and winter begins to look endless, there's no need to let spirits stay under the weather. Get the jump on the season and put springtime on your table with a meal that's light-hearted and fresh as the first April breeze.

You'll want to prepare something delicious and different, but bother-free. This leaves you time to pretty up you table setting with a "specially nice cloth, a sping of greenery, or a spring-like centerpiece.

Our suggestion is a skillet dish featuring roll-ups of delicate white flounder simmered in a mild tangy cream sauce. The luscious filling features a mixture of rice and chopped pecans seasoned with tarragon. And, the sauce, so rich and creamy thick, is an easy blend of condensed cream of celery soup and sour cream. A decorative sprinkle of chopped parsley and paprika, and a lemon wedge garnish add extra eye appeal to this tempting treat. Add another sunny touch with a dessert of golden apricots.

CELERY FLOUNDER ROLL-UPS

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of celery soup
1 cup cooked rice
1-3 cup chopped pecans
⅛ teaspoon tarragon, crushed
6 flounder fillets, about 1½ pounds
¼ cup sour cream
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
Paprika
Lemon wedges

Combine ¼ cup soup with rice, nuts, and tarragon. Place about 2 tablespoons rice mixture on each fillet. Roll; fasten with toothpick. In skillet, blend remaining soup with sour cream and parsley; add fillets. Cover; cook over low heat 20 minutes or until done. Stir now and then. Sprinkle with paprika; garnish with lemon wedges. Makes 6 sevings.

A Nutritious Lunch Need Of Children

Lunch at home can be with just mother and her prekindergartners or it could include a school-age child or two. Whatever the age, a hot nutritious lunch is needed for everyone after a morning filled with activity, and an afternoon of demanding attention and play.

A casserole of green beans and canned beef and macaroni in tomoato sauce, chef seasoned and needing just to be heated, is easy to put together and quick to bake. Rich in protein and essential minerals and vitamins it makes a delicious, filling lunch.

Serve some crisp raw vegetables for nibbling and a glass of milk with the casserole. For a sweet finish a baked apple topped with a spoonful of whipped cream is delightfully satisfying.

BEEFARONI CASSEROLE

1½ cups cooked or canned cut green beans
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
2 15½-oz. cans beef and macaroni
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¼ teaspoon oregano leaves

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Combine beans with butter and garlic powder. Place beans around outside of a nine-inch shallow baking dish. Place canned beef and macaroni in center. Mix cheese with oregano and sprinkle over top. Bake, uncovered for 20-25 minutes. Makes four to six servinsg.

CREAMY SPAGHETTI AND MEATBALLS

1 15½-oz. can spaghetti and meat balls
2 tablespoons commercial sour cream
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Spoon spaghetti and meatballs into shallow baking dish, placing meatballs in spaghetti. Using back of tablespoon, make four depressions about same size as meatballs at intervals in the spaghetti. Fill depressions with sour cream. Sprinkle mixture with Parmesan cheese. Bake for 2 minutes. Gently mix together. Makes two to three servings.

FILLED FLOWERS

Roll the dough into rectangle. Spread your favorite jam or jelly over the surface of the dough. Roll the dough, starting at narrow end, sealing edges of dough by pinching it together. Cut rolls into 1-inch wide pieces. Place in greased muffin tin, cut side up. Cut into rolls with scissors. Make the cut ½-inch deep. Spread the petals. Bake according to recipe directions.

Frankfurters And Ravioli For Family

Frankfurters and ravioli are two top favorite foods and combined in a casserole for a quick lunch, they are great. Saturday is one day of the week when the family may lunch together but the time for it is short.

On this day chores are many and demands on time tight. For a quick, satisfying dish, put canned cheese ravioli, chef seasoned and needing only to be heated, into a baking dish with sliced frankfurters. Bake it all together for a short time. Then let the family help themselves.

If you happen to be a plan ahead type homemaker, you may have a gelatin salad ready in the refrigerator. An asparagus-lemon gelatin ring filled with cabbage goes well with the casserole. If you are not, a variety of relishes will suffice nicely. A dessert of fruit and cheese would be quick and easy, or maybe none at all, depending on the family's wishes.

FRANKFURTER STRIPED RAVIOLI

4 frankfurters
2 (15½ oz.) cans ravioli with cheese filling
2 tablespoons grated parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 357 degrees F. Cut frankfurters into quarters lengthwise. Arrange ravioli in 9-inch or 10-inch shallow casserole. Place frankfurter strips between ravioli. Sprinkle top with cheese. Bake, uncovered, for 20 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

RAVIOLI ONION CASSEROLE

2 (15½ oz.) cans ravioli with beef filling
½ cup undiluted cheddar cheese soup
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1½ cups cooked or canned whole white onions

Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Arrange ravioli around outer edge of an 8-inch by 12-inch baking dish. Mix cheese soup with mustard. Add onions to soup mixture. Place onion mixture in center of ravioli. Bake, uncovered, 20 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Sour Cream Opens New Cooking Vistas

Many good California cooks rejoice in the varsatility of sour cream which adds drama and interest to practically anything from simple soups to fabulous desserts.

Sour cream, commercially prepared, may be called cultured cream, salad cream or soured cream, but whatever it is called, it is a dairy food that opens up new adventures in menu planning and cooking.

—When adding sour cream to sauces, remove food from direct heat and stir in sour cream, then reheat to simmering. Your sauce will curdle if the sour cream is boiled; will lose its delicate flavor and appearance.

—Season sour cream with a bit of curry powder or salt and ginger before adding as a garnish to cream soups.

—For a simple salad dressing made with sour cream as the base; to ½-cup sour cream, add a grating of pepper, 1½ teaspoons sugar, ¾ teaspoon cider vinegar, ⅛ teaspoon prepared mustard. Serve this on cucumbers, cucumbers and onions or any of the cabbage slaw combinations.

—For a new flavor treat, fold sour cream into hashed brown potatoes just as they are ready to serve.

—Sour cream can be made smoother and stiffer by whipping for serving cold. Care must be taken not to overwhip the cream or it will churn into butter. For the same reason and to hasten whipping, the crem must be kept cold while it is being whipped.

HERRING WITH SOUR CREAM

This famed Finnish specialty is made simply by combing 1 cup pickled herring, 1 cup dairy sour cream and ½-cup pickled onion slices. Serve on lettuce as an appetizer.

Baking Beans Makes For Success

A sense of accomplishment comes with baking beans.

Baked Beans with Ham Shank
Boston Brown Bread
Salad Bowl
Fresh Fruit Cheese Tray

BAKED BEANS WITH HAM SHANK

1 package (1 pound) pea beans (also called navy beans)
½ cup finely chopped onion
1½ cups medium-chopped pared McIntosh apples
¼ cup each chili sauce and dark molasses
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
1 teaspoon each dry mustard and ginger
¼ teaspoon tabasco sauce
3 pounds smoked ham shank

In a large saucepan, cover beans with water; bring to a boil; boil 2 minutes. Cover and let stand 1 hour. Add onion; cook until tender — about 30 minutes. Drain, reserving 1½ cups liquid. Turn beans into a casserole large enough to hold the ham shank. Mix reserved liquid with remaining ingredients except ham and stir into beans. Add ham; cover and bake at 325 degrees about 2 hours. Remove ham and keep warm. Continue baking beans, uncovered, until top browns — about 30 minutes. Spoon off excess fat, if you like, from beans. Serve with slices of ham. Makes 8 servings.

Stretchable Salad Potions

You may wish to keep these stretchable portions for a popular salad as a reminder.

All-Purpose Chef's Salad Rolls

Beverage

ALL-PURPOSE CHEF'S SALAD

Romaine
Escarole or chicory
Cooked ham and Swiss cheese, cut in short thin strips
Shallots or green onion (Scallion)
Grated Parmesan cheese
Olive oil, wine vinegar (red or white), salt and freshly ground pepper

For each serving, mix together 1 cup torn romaine and ¼ cup torn escarole or chicory (packed down); ¼ cup cooked ham strips; ¼ cup Swiss cheese strips. Add 1 thinly sliced small shallot or green onion and 1 tablespoon grated Parmesan for every 4 servings. Toss with oil, vinegar, salt and pepper in the proportions you prefer.

Piquant Thins Delectable On the Side

Here's a delectable recipe for Piquant Thins. These are cheese-flavored wafers that are so nice to serve with soup, salads or on hors d'oeuvres trays.

The zippy flavor of these Piquant Thins comes from hearty American blue cheese. The blue-marbled specialty cheese is handy to keep in the refrigerator for topping salads, casseroles and crackers. Don't forget to serve this zesty cheese with fruit to your Christmas callers.

PIQUANT THINS

½ pound butter or margarine
1 cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 8 ounces)
4 cups flour
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Cream butter and blue cheese together. Mix in flour and Worcestershire sauce. Form into long roll about diameter of a quarter. Chill. Slice thin and bake at 375 degrees for 5 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on rack.

Fine Stuffing For Turkey

You'll have a fine stuffing!
Roast Turkey with Delicious Stuffing
Potato Puff Broccoli
Ice Cream Sundaes Beverage

DELICIOUS STUFFING

½ pound butter or margarine
1 medium-small onion, finely chopped
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef consomme diluted with enough water to make 2 cups
2 packages (each 8 ounces) herb-seasoned crumbled bread stuffing

In a very large skillet or a good-size saucepan over low heat, melt ¼ pound of the butter; add onion and celery and cook, stirring often, until partly soft — about 7 minutes. Add remaining butter and consomme mixture; heat until butter melts. Remove from heat. Add stuffing and stir to moisten evenly. Pack lightly into body and neck cavities of a 12 to 14 pound turkey; roast according to favorite method.

Gelatin Mold Multipurpose

This pretty gelatin mold will serve very nicely as salad or dessert. Fold sliced fresh strawberries, drained canned peach slices and cubes of cream cheese into partially set strawberry gelatin. Chill until firm in individual molds or large mold. No dressing is needed but a garnish of peach slices and whole berries is eye-catching.

BART PROGRESS — Moving of homes in the Los Banos area of Daly City has been progressing moothly during recent months. BART trains will someday rumble into a modern station slated to be constructed on this site. No plans have, as yet, been submitted to the city for study, because some BART officials have taken a "wait and see" attitude towards future action of the West Bay Rapid Transit District. Design of the new station is dependent on WBARTD' Peninsula tracks. BART claims.

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

"Cavities"

There are millions of bacteria in your mouth. Some are quite harmful because they act on sugars and other carbohydrates to form acids. These acids dissolve the enamel of the teeth. That is the beginning of tooth decay.

Unless decay is stopped by a dentist, who removes the decayed portion of the tooth and puts in a filling, decay proceeds from the enamel into the dentin and then into the pulp. Once the pulp has been infected, it may be too late to save the tooth.

Have your dentist check your teeth and take care of any cavities that may be present.

Dr. Campbell limits his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Parks Panel Is Briefed

Report Plans 'Very Flexible'

A minimum of 50,000,000 cubic yards of material would be scraped off of the eastern end of San Bruno Mountain and dumped into the Bay under present plans of the Pacific Air Commerce Center, the County Parks and Recreation Commission was told last week.

PACC President Warren Lindquist said that amount of dirt and rock would be enough to complete his group's controversial project between International Airport and the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge, provide fill for expansion of the airport, and provide material for the development of Redwood Shores subdivision.

At least that amount of dirt would have to be taken from the mountain to repay the developers for the $27,000,000 it would cost to "tool up" for the excavation and transportation of the material, Lindquist told the commissioners.

The meeting yesterday was scheduled because of concern on the part of the park and recreation leaders about what is to happen to San Bruno Mountain, which they hope to have retained as a regional park, as well as concern about apparent conflicts between the PACC plan and the county's plans for development at Coyote Point in San Mateo.

On the latter point, Lindquist assured the commission that PACC's plans can be changed to accommodate the county's desires, as well as the plans of all other jurisdictions involved. He called his group's proposal "completely flexible" and said "there is nothing here that can't be changed."

Lindquist said the fate of the PACC project depends upon the approval of Millbrae, Burlingame, San Mateo, the county and the Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

"We will only undertake development," he told the commission, "when it is overwhelmingly accepted by the public and the jurisdictions."

When Commissioner Clarke Congdon expressed concern about what the excavation would do to San Bruno Mountain, Lindquist told him:

"We believe it will boil down to a matter of choices. We believe we can make the choice attractive enough."

Lindquist said it is planned to contour the excavation in an effort to minimize the adverse effects. A specific plan for the work is under preparation now, he added, and should be ready in about six months.

The work, Lindquist said, should not interfere with the Regional Planning Committee's proposals for a park on San Bruno Mountain. The area from where the fill material will be taken, he said, "is not very suitable for a park."

The plans call for construction of a conveyor belt to carry the dirt from the mountain to the Bay, where it will be loaded on barges for transportation to the construction sites.

As much as 13½ feet of fill will be required in some places, Lindquist said.

Regional Airport Authority Needed

In just three short years from now the major airlines serving the Bay Area are going to start using new supersize jet planes with double, triple, and even greater passenger capacity than the planes now in use. The same huge planes will also be utilizing the vastly increased payload capacity for the hauling of air express and air freight.

These are not the super-sonic planes that will link all the major air terminals of the world within a matter of hours. Those are not due until 1975. But the new planes due in 1970 will, because of their great size, bring sweeping changes in transport and commodity movement.

These changes will bring other changes in the makeup of local economy, the volume of local traffic, and the extension of local horizons. In fact, the very word "local" will come to have a new meaning for most of us because it will extend over a much greater area than we presently conceive to be "local."

At the outset this extension may be regional to the Bay Area, but if the day comes, and it is being predicted, when the new passenger capacity brings the fare between here and Los Angeles down to $5, we may find ourselves thinking of all California as "local."

Changes in local economy, even as we presently think of it, will grow out of corresponding changes all across the nation. Distance will shrink as passenger and freight rates drop. Many of the items of commerce and industry will move directly from factories and automated warehousing will handle needed stocks on an almost instantaneous basis. Vast quantities of goods will be in regularly programmed transit.

The short-haul movement of both passengers and commodities will heavily increase traffic from air terminals, and the increases in movement will require more, and more widely spaced, terminals.

It takes no crystal ball to foresee all this — it is already happening and we are already seriously lagging behind in what will be needed to accommodate all these changes.

Unless preparation is made to meet them on an area-wide basis there is danger that, instead of benefiting, we may be strangled by the technological progress. If we simply throw up our hands, or indulge in interminable argument, we could forfeit the benefits to more provident areas.

This is why the matter of a regional airport authority must take precedence to other moves for regional organization and government. First things first — the others will follow when, and if, we need them.

'Miss Daly City' Contest Is Launched

The thirteenth annual Miss Daly City beauty pageant officially got underway this week.

Sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, the affair promises to be bigger and better than ever this year, chairman, P. Evert Terminello said during a press conference Monday.

Preliminary contests will be held at the Westmoor Little Theater on Friday evening, April 21, with the finals scheduled to be staged at the Elks Club in South San Francisco on May 4.

Qualifications for Miss Daly City are the same as last year, Terminello said: Between 16 and 25 years old, and a resident of Daly City for the past six months.

Entry blanks for prospective beauty queens are now available at the First National Bank of Daly City, the Chamber of Commerce and offices of the Post newspaper at 30 Park Plaza Drive (Westlake Shopping Center).

The winner of this year's contest, in addition to receiving many valuable prizes from various local merchants, will represent the city at the San Mateo Fiesta to be held this summer at the Fairgrounds.

Last year's winner, Miss Vivian Reiger, won the city contest and went on to become "Miss San Mateo Dream Grll."

Making up the committee for this year's event is Terminello, Fred Martin, Mona Baker, Ramona Birke, Don Monson, Raymond Forcina and John Wuerthner.

There will also be a one-day charm workshop to be held under the direction of professional model Diane Darnell of the Glamor Shoppe, assisted by master hair stylist Nora, of Nora's House of Beauty.

Several chamber members said an attempt to enter Miss Daly City 1967 in the Miss America pageant will be made.

DIANE LAMMON, 19, of 511 Linden Avenue in San Bruno, is among the contestants in the Miss ALSAC (Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children) event. The crowning of Miss ALSAC will be featured in the San Mateo Area March 12 Danny Thomas March for St. Jude's Research Hospital. Other contestants pictured are (left) Carus Culver, 22, Hillsborough, a San Jose State College student, and Carolyn Marie Hull (center), 20, of Hillsborough, a College of San Mateo student. Miss Lammon also attends CSM. The winner of the event will be determined by thenumber of votes, at ten cents each, the girl collects. (Post Photo)

Show Biz Figures In Word, Picture

Samuel Chandler

Two from show business: "Double Exposure," compiled and photographed by Roddy McDowell; "All Talking! All Singing!. All Dancing" by John Springer with an introduction by Gene Kelly.

These are beautiful books of pictures and words. In the the former, the stars and the authors talk about each other.

Thus of Natalie Wood, Arnold Schulman writes, "She sings the worst close-harmony of anybody I ever heard. She doesn't know how to heat up a take-out order from a Chinese restaurant, she has a wide variety of shaggy dogs and friends. Some love her. Some use her. She is the stubborn, fragile blade of grass we have all seen piercing through the middle of sidewalks . . . and yet somehow this indomitable, adorable-woman-child, product of a system, has managed to come through. How? Why? In search of the sun? In awe of the moon."

ROBERT RYAN writes of Myrna Loy. "For the first time in the 3,000 year history of the theatre we saw the ideal wife."

Sammy Davis Jr. calls Richard Burton "a friend a warm, delicate human being who would leap over four mountains to help you along a particular path."

Of Phil Silvers, David Merrick writes, "I believe he is the world's greatest comedian because his comedy has such humility."

In the various tributes there are some memorable thoughts.

Noel Coward writes, "To me vulgarity in the theatre does not necessarily mean four-letter words or slapstick — it means overacting, striving for illegitimate laughs, and not playing true."

Harold Clurman honors Aaron Copland because "his deepest ambition was to be a great man to himself. If there is some conceit in this, there is more humility."

IRENE SHARAFF writes in her tribute to Elizabeth Taylor, "the quality of femininity, at its best, is intuition keen, direct, sympathetic, and absolutely real."

Double Exposure is a revealing book with 98 photographs and 98 pieces.

"All Talking! All Singing All Dancing!" is a pictorial history of the musical movie. With thousands of photographs it recalls the golden moments when Nelson Eddy and Jeanette McDonald made love to music; when Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Shirley Temple, Deanna Durbin, Walt Disney's Snow White and his three little pigs made everyone know that life is good in spite of wars and depressions.

One whole section is devoted to the greatness of Bing Crosby and such associates as Bob Hope, Frank Sinatra, Dorothy Lamour and Betty Hutton.

IT TELLS of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, of Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds, of Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke, of the gold digger movies, of Dick Powell, Joan Blondell, Rubie Keeler, Grace Moore, Eleanor Powell, the Beatles, Jayne Powell, Gene Kelly, Betty Grable, and Alice Faye.

All Talking! All Singing All Dancing! is a book for an afternoon or an evening of pleasure.

The Marquee

A New Theatre

Barbara Bladen

THERE'S A NASTY bit of business being transacted these nights by The Committee at 622 Broadway. They're conspiring to overthrow comedy in San Francisco by reducing it to the satirical infinite. So followers beware, you'll have to come up to their standards from now on.

Here's an entirely new crop of actors in this Committee Revue. The original company is preparing to open a new theater next month. That makes two complete companies, which could be interchangeable at any given time, to penetrate the surface of society's complacency and apply a little salt in the wound of recognition.

There isn't a person who sits in that intimate theater and listens to the caustic but continually humorous diatribe against the establishment who won't feel a bit uncomfortable at having his prejudices and his foibles exposed. It may only be momentarily but they'll "get to you,," don't mistake it and the experience will be refreshing because they are so refreshing. And so is their material. The sacrifice of sacred cows is eagerly encouraged when done with perspicacity.

Their format remains topical with excursions into the ludicrous. Don Sturdy and Carl Gottlieb give a sportcasters report (parodying Russ Hodges and Lon Simmons, Giants' announcers) on the war in Vietnam. "I know LBJ wanted to be here to throw out the first grenade in today's combat," they conclude.

THERE IS NOT A CONTINUITY to their show. That's part of the free spirit that prevails nightly. At one moment they're needling the foreign policy, the next they're devastating the audience with a boy-girl encounter. Nancy Fish embarrassedly tells her gentleman caller that she's sightless (as he throws himself on the floor to look up her skirt) and queries, "Didn't you know?" "Heck no," Morgan Upton retorts, "this friend of mine called and said, do you want a blind date?"

The entire company assembles to sing the national anthem but one unpatriotic dissenter remains silent. He's eventually beaten up by the aggressives who continue to sing at top volce.

And then there is Leigh French as a college interviewer whose guest is Roger Bowen playing John McCone. That appeals to sympathizers of the free-anything-movement. By his words, he shall condemn himself.

They've successfully followed a device of all improvisational theater, that of reading newspaper clips and basing a routine on its statements and implications.

CHRIS ROSS, AS A REVIVALIST Bible salesman augmenting the commercials with the accompaniment of a harmonica strapped to his shoulders, is most hilarious. As with Larry Hankin of the original Committee, Ross is to laugh over no matter what he does. It's a sight gag, knowing that when he does elect to say something, it will be succinct and funny.

CTA Pushing For Middle of Roader

Frank LaPierre

SCHOOL BOARD BATTLE — What the California Teachers Association (CTA) is looking for in a school board candidate for the upcoming April race is a middle-of-the-road entrant.

"We want an intelligent, fair, tactful person with an open mind and one who believes in the democratic process. This leaves no room for extremists of either left or right on school governing boards," the CTA says.

About the only person we can figure who fits this description is celebrating a birthday today. And, according to some Britons, he was something of an extremist.

DON'T QUOTE ME — But strong rumors are circulating that the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce may soon be called the Daly City, etc., etc., unless their southern neighbor starts "actively participating" (giving some money) to the organization. Chamberites claim Daly City has been footing the bill for activities which publicize both cities — and have realized nothing (money-wise) from Colma.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND — Post photog Bill Koska has been growling and barking ever since he saw a reward poster on the Westlake Mall offering a $1,000 reward (no questions asked) for the return of a white poodle. "My wife probably would file suit against returning me once I was lost." Bill allowed.

DALY CITY'S FINEST have been hit by a "rash" of phone calls from Southern Hills residents following an "epidemic" of burglaries in that area last week. What bugs police is everyone rates a "suspicious person" phone call, including newsboys, milkmen, etc., etc., etc.

LOCAL SIGHTINGS last week included a small boy putting a dime in a corner paper vending box, taking out all but one newspaper and hawking the rest to passing motorists on the next corner.

DALY CITY-WASCO?— D. C. City Engineer Art Reschke has asked the city council to issue a resolution supporting a state-wide move to repeal the "matching funds" provision of the Collier-Unruh Local Transportation Development Act.

What city staff wants is a resolution similar to the City of Wasco, which sent the League of California Cities a copy of their unanimous condemnation of the Act. At present, the city puts up one dollar for every two dollars put up by the state.

Officials fear the state will soon drop the amount to a one-for-one matching fund ratio. Reschke wants the money—but he doesn't want to match it!

CHAMBER NOTES — The D.C. (Colma) Chamber of Commerce sign committee made their third annual report to the Board of Directors last week: Still studying the matter.

RURAL LIVING — The D.C. Council recently received a strong letter from the Cow Palace manager Ed Diran (ordered by the Palace's Board of Directors) requesting something be done to keep animals from trespassing on Cow Palace property (no 'colin'!)

Seems herds of horses, flocks of chicken, bands of dogs, and packs of rats gallop, cluck and scurry down from the surrounding hills onto the property almost daily, soiling pathways and parking lots to the chagrin of officials.

What's worse, however, is the view that greets out-of-towners to the Palace: trash strewn hillsides. The matter of zoning for animals has been tossed at newly appointed city attorney Al Polonsky, who must determine if residents of the Carter Street neighborhood are within their rights (zone-wise) to raise the critters.

On the other hand, Diran doesn't care WHAT the zoning allowance is — he wants the animals to stay off the Palace property.

Our question: What's happening to our world when livestock aren't welcome at the most famous livestock barn in the world?

Better Business

Buying Land 'Sight Unseen' Risky

Lorene Beasley

Who wouldn't love a vacation paradise on the U.S.-Canadian border for as little as 30 cents an acre?

A firm in Ontario has been doing a lucrative business in selling real estate brochures. The booklet gives glowing descriptions of the land available, maps, hunting and fishing regulations and miscellaneous information, all for $3.

The advertisements read:

U.S. citizens are eligible to pick up full title to parcels of choice property up to 125 acres for business and for pleasure for .... 30 cents per acre.

The explanation for this bargain-priced land is that Canada is anxious to "stimulate tourism and produce new taxbearing land."

THE NATIONAL Better Business Bureau contacted government sources in five Canadian provinces and was told that there is no such cheap land for sale.

The Department of Agriculture of Quebec, in answer to inquiries of NBBB regarding bargain land, replied, "Land in Quebec is exclusively available to Canadian citizens who have lived in Quebec for a period of five years immediately prior to application.

Other regulations are:

Settlers must build and live in a house on the property. They must build a barn and stable. A portion of the land must be cleared and cultivated every year.

The advertisement did not mention that land concessions in Canada usually come in 100-acre parcels. In some areas the parcels of land range from 200-500 acres.

The Montreal Better Business Bureau reports a number of companies in the Montreal area are actively promoting real estate to professional persons in the United States. Their brochures give glowing descriptions of the land but little, if any, information is given of the actual property other than the implication that it is in an active growing area.

There have been no complaints from American buyers concerning the deeds for the land they had contracted for. The problem seems to be entirely a question of the buyer being misled as to the location of the land, plus an inflated price.

A PHYSICIAN who had purchased a parcel of land in Montreal for $10,000 when checking his property found he could not properly identify it. Although he had his deed, the lots were not staked out and it was impossible for him to determine their exact location. The Municipality or Department of the Government must approve all subdivisions. The plans for the doctor's property had not received this approval.

Remember — buying land sight unseen is always hazardous. You do not have to go out of the United States to make a mistake.

Villa Chartier Coupon Redeemed 10 Years Later

THE TIP OF THE HAT goes to energetic Emerson Murfee, squire of the stately Villa Chartier and exotic Lanai restaurants, for coming up with original ideas. Many years ago, a Villa Chartier tradition was put into action that is still a popular practice. It seems many people went to the Villa Chartier requesting donations for a "dinner for two," or more, for various civic functions. Mr. Murfee decided that the general public might also be interested in gifting their friends with a dinner certificate, which could be purchased at the restaurant. The idea was put into action with great success. Just the other day, Judge Marcel Biscay was going through some of his old desk files when he came across a Gift Certificate which was issued ten years ago. When he called Mr. Murfee to find out if it was still good, the answer was, "Yes, sir, but the legal tender will probably not purchase quite as much as it did then." Which brings us to the point: You may still purchase Luncheon or Dinner Gift Certificates for your friends and family, but the "statute of limitations" is for one year. You're bound to visit the Villa Chartier countless times during that period of time.

JACK BEDIENT AND THE CHESSMEN, combine music, vocal arrangements and comedy in an hour show that leaves their audience in awe at their variety of material, much to the gratification of Tiger bossman Bill Gilbert, who booked them into the pop upstairs club at the Airport's Hilton Inn . . . The banquet facilities at the International Inn, South San Francisco, are booked well in advance. Among the many groups enjoying the accommodations and the hospitality of General Manager Phil Rauscher, recently, were the Quarter Century Wireless Club and the Auxiliary for the Deaf . . . Louis Gundunas of the Balkan Village and his wife, Peggy, on a recent vacation at Squaw Valley, visited the Lodge and saw some limbo dancing. Louie, a Greek dancer, was quick to learn the step. He learned later that it was a contest and he had won the magnum of champagne.

COME TO PARIS TONIGHT . . . La Touraine, where dining with a French flare is featured right in downtown Burlingame. Ernest Luisetti and Maurice Brossier, owners of this outstanding Continental restaurant, also offer cocktails and one of the most extensive wine lists to be found anywhere . . . Supreme Court Justice William J. Brenmen, who attended sessions of the Stanford Moot Court, last week, enjoyed dinner at Rudolfo's in Palo Alto with forty members of the Stanford Law School. There was no debate or cross-examination about the charcol-broiled, 16-ounce N.Y. Steaks (Eastern corn-fed) which they all enjoyed . . . "First Mates" John Peet and John Savini of the Cap'ns Cabin always make sure their crew is on deck for the best. You'll find the "bon voyages" blended just the way you like 'em and fellow "mates" to be among the friendliest.

SALUTE OF THE WEEK: My good friend and popular Pacifica restaurateur, Enrico Romano, who, whether he knows it or not, marks the fifteenth consecutive year of advertising his Romano's restaurant on the Bright Lights restaurant page. Enrico first came into the fold when Yours Truly was associated with the San Francisco News. In those days, Romano's restaurant was a small, but successful pizza business operated by Enrico and his mother, Enricketta Romano. The thought of a bar was just that — a thought. Seven years later, Enrico came to San Mateo to advertise in The Times' "Bright Lights" restaurant page, which is now in its eighth year of publication. Today, Romano's lucrative business requires a complete kitchen and diningroom staff in order to efficiently serve the many pizza orders, plus de luxe Italian dinners, which have made this a dining target these many years. Food is also prepared to take out. A cozy, little bar and cocktail lounge are big favorites with those who insist on high quality thirst quenchers Be sure to drop in — Enricketta continues to oversee the kitchen duties, and handsome Enrico is on hand to greet and meet you as always.

WILLIE VARGAS, little dynamo of the all-Latin revue at Luz Garcia's Sinaloa cantina and restaurant on Powell Street, San Francisco, makes up in powerful singing what he may lack in height. His romantic Latin voice registers strong with the distaff set. Also effective in the nightly revues are Flamenco sensations Maria Dolores and Miguel Santos and curvy dancer Vickie Alvarez . . . The family dinner for two is a big treat for patrons at Mr. Louie Sun's Chinese restaurant in downtown San Mateo. Included is soup of the day, Bar B-Q Pork Egg Foo Young, Fried Prawns, Chicken Chow Mein, Pork Fried Rice, cookies and tea. . . . Some of the top racing drivers in the country will be gathered at the New Southern restaurant in South San Francisco, this weekend. Champion Speedway will be holding it's Annual Awards Banquet in the "Southern" Room, Saturday night, and most of the top drivers on the coast, along with their wives, will be in attendance.

Pete Brallier's "Daily Double"

In racing terms, you might say Pete Brallier, bossman of the San Mateo and Burlingame Round Table Pizza Parlors, caught a mighty fine "Daily Double" restaurant operation. Pete's know-how in this type of business is proving a winner in both locations. The Burlingame Round Table is the latest addition to his bank account. His first "shingle" was established at Third and B Street, San Mateo.

Russsell Reed Is 393 Pounds of Fun

Russell Reed, billed as a "ton of fun" at Finocchio's but actually weighing a mere 393 pounds, is the current guest star at the house of female impersonations. His frenetic interpretation of "You Gotta See Your Mama Every Night, etc.," is a real hit. Russell does not overglamorize himself, but puts over a good singing act with sense of humor and a lot of bounce. In fact, if he isn't careful, one of these days he may bounce right through the floor and into the basement. A real mirthquake!

DOLLY SCHUMACHER, left, "Miss South San Francisco" of 1962, and Judy Ambler, current queen of the city, run through one of the dance routines to be presented in this year's pageant. The South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce is seeking entrants for the pagenat, which will be held May 19 and 20.

S.S.F. Church Project Delay

South San Francisco planning commissioners postponed a hearing on a use permit request for a proposed church-parochial school complex in Westborough Tuesday night "in order to allow the city council to complete studies on public works and safety needs of the community."

Commissioners scheduled a new hearing on the permit request for March 27.

City Planner Daniel Pass said the police department is conducting a traffic survey in the area, and Public Works Director Louis Goss is still evaluating plans for the 18-acre complex.

Pass has recommended that the use permit, requested by the San Francisco Archdiocese of the Roman Catholic Church, be denied on grounds it would "remove valuable lands from the city's tax rolls."

Goss has also expressed opposition to the project because of potential traffic problems it would create "in an already congested area."

Hearing on a use permit for another project in the Westborough development was postponed along with the church-school hearing. Developer Ted Connolly is seeking a use permit for a 10-acre shopping center in the planned community.

In other business Tuesday, the commission approved a permit request for the establishment of a 132-unit motel and adjoining coffee shop on the west side of Freeway Street north of Terminal Court.

The permit was granted to Maranco Motels, Inc., subject to approval of the city's police, fire and public works departments.

A request from Lucky Stores, Inc., for a permit to place a 108-square-foot sign on the rear of a market at 3573 Callan Boulevard was denied. The building is in a planned community district.

TOURISTS

Nearly two million tourists visit the White House each year. In the first years of the Lyndon B. Johnson administration, tourists numbered well over four million — more than the entire population of the United States when George Washington took office.

Flamenco Dance Is SSF Pageant Theme

Preparations for the 1967 "Miss South San Francisco" Pageant began this week, and the "Flamenco Dance" has been selected as the theme for this year's show.

Dolly Schumacher, a former Miss South San Francisco, will direct the pageant again this year, and the chamber of commerce is sponsoring the show.

Girls between the ages of 17 and 27 who are permanent residents of South San Francisco are eligible to compete in the pageant, provided they meet other qualifications set forth by the sponsors.

Entrants must be single, and have never been married, divorced, or had a marriage annulled, and must agree to participate in all pre-contest and post-contest activities as designated by the chamber.

Girls entering the pageant must also agree to compete in the Fiesta Dream Girl Pageant at the San Mateo County Fair.

The contest will be judged on competition in evening gowns, swimsuits, and talent divisions. Each entrant will be required to present a three-minute talent routine.

The deadline for entering the pageant is April 15, Miss Schumacher said. Entrants will participate in rehearsals and dance and poise classes at the Schumacher School of the Theatre Arts.

Police Smash Teen Theft Ring in D.C.

Daly City police have smashed a teen-aged daylight burglry ring with the arrest of three local youth Sunday.

The trio had been burglarizing homes in the St. Francis Heights section of the city for the past several weeks during daylight hours.

Items stolen by the youths included watches, assorted small household items, jewelry, and cash, according to victims' reports.

All three boys live in the St Francis Heights area, police said.

The arrests were made Sunday by police who had been working around the clock to solve the rash of crimes which hit the Daly City area last weekend.

Detectives are still investigating another series of burglaries in the Southern Hills section of the city.

VICTORY MARRED

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. —Gary Sheffield of Maine's Dow Air Force Base won the national AAU two-man bobsled championships Sunday but was then rushed to Lake Placid Memorial Hospital as Sheffield's sled crashed just as he was finishing his final run.

Sheffield and his brakeman Howard Siler were reported in satisfactory condition after the run, which was the fastest of the day, 1 minute, 10.35 seconds.

Food Stamp Plan Readied For County

A food stamp plan for low-income families in San Mateo County should get started April 1, County Manager E. R. Stallings said last week.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday approved an agreement with Crocker-Citizens National Bank, which will issue food stamps to persons who have been certified as eligible by the Health and Welfare Department.

Stallings estimated that 10,000 families will be eligible.

Under the plan, the Health and Welfare Department will establish a formula for eligibility, based on income and family size. Certificates of qualification will be issued by the department and the applicants will then be able to obtain food stamps at any Crocker-Citizens branch at a discount of 20 per cent. The stamps may then be used to purchase essential food items. Such things as tobacco and liquor would not qualify, Stallings said.

The food stamp program was instituted at the request of the Daly City Senior Citizens' Club.

Girl, 2 Men Hurt in 4-Car Road Crash

A San Bruno girl and two men were hurt at 2 p.m. Sunday in a four-car collision on Bayshore Freeeway near Candlestick Park.

Highway patrolmen said the accident occurred in a traffic jam caused by another accident across the county line in San Francisco.

A northbound car driven by Charles A. Jones, 20-year-old San Francisco Air Force enlisted man, struck two of the stopped cars, officers said, and pushed one of those cars into a fourth auto.

Taken to Peninsula Hospital were the airman, his passenger, Donna D. Meier, 18, of 140 Acacia Drive, San Bruno, and a passenger in one of the other autos, Sam Ruman, 62, of Los Angeles.

CUSTOM

Valentine's Day can be traced to ancient Rome and the Feast of Lupercalia. Roman maidens placed their names in a giant urn in the public square, and bachelors drew the name cards from the urn. Some of the maidens tried to attract attention to their own name cards by decorating them lavishly.

AVERAGE

The typical American sends not one but five Valentines, according to an estimate by Hallmark Cards.

TIRED OF THE RAT RACE?
Are you fed up with Monday morning? Corporate politics? Never having quite enough money? Seeing the other man get ahead while you hardly move? Maybe it's time you looked for a bueiness of your own. With over 300 AAMCO Service Centers coast to coast, with a success record second to none, with men from many different backgrounds earning fantastic personal incomes, AAMCO could be your answer.
Our basic qualifications are that you be financially sound, have a provable background and be able to handle an investment of at least $17,500. You must also be prepared to attend a management training class for four weeks.
AAMCO may be your opportunity to get out of the Rat Race. Write or call. Howard Price, Director of Marketing.
